Jammu & Kashmir Government–Orders

HIGH COURT OF JAMMU & KASHMIR AND LADAKH
(Office of the Registrar General at Jammu)

Subject :– Video Conferencing (Nyaya Shruti) Rules, 2025.

Notification

No.: 1315 of 2024/RG Dated: 08.04.2025

Object and Reasons:

Whereas, in order to avoid delay in judicial proceeding due to non-availability of parties, advocates, witnesses and accused physically, it is expedient to formalize and enable use of electronic communication and other audio-video electronic means for the purpose of conducting trial, inquiry and proceeding under the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (No. 46 of 2023) ;

Whereas, the BNSS under sections 54, 63, 64, 70, 71, 94, 154, 183, 187, 193, 209, 227, 230, 231, 251, 254, 262, 265, 266, 308, 310, 316, 336, 355, 356, 392, and 530 recognises use of audio-video electronic means and other forms of electronic communication for different proceedings ;

Whereas, Section 530 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (BNSS) provides that all trials, inquiries and proceedings under this Sanhita, including examination of complainant and witnesses, recording of evidence in inquiries and trials and all appellate proceedings or any other proceeding, may be held in electronic mode, by use of electronic communication or use of audio-video electronic means.

Whereas, there is no restriction on civil courts in using video conferencing facilities in conducting trial ;

Whereas, the District Judiciary in the Union Territories of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh has been using video conferencing facilities for conducting inquiries and trials in civil as well as criminal proceedings.

Now, in exercise of the powers conferred by Article 227 of the Constitution of India, and all other enabling sections of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (No. 46 of 2023) recognising the use of audio-video electronic communication for District Judiciary, the High Court of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh, hereby make the following Rules :–

CHAPTER–IV

Procedure For Video Conferencing

11. Appearance through video conferencing and other modes of audio-visual electronic communication.–

(1) In criminal cases, any party to the proceedings or witness, save and except where proceedings are initiated at the instance of the Court or on request of public prosecutor, may move a request for presence and proceedings through video conferencing. (SCHEDULE - II)

(2) In civil cases, the court may, as its discretion or on request of any of the parties, initiate process for hearing of any case through video conferencing and other modes of audio-visual electronic communication.

(3) While allowing a request for video conferencing the Court may also fix the schedule for convening the video conferencing.

(4) An advocate may appear from advocate's remote point for making submissions or for examination of witnesses.

(5) Where video conferencing proceedings are conducted for making oral submissions, the order may require the advocate or party in person to submit written arguments and precedents, if any, in advance.

12. Service of processes.–

Processes issued to a witness who is to be examined through video conferencing, shall mention the date, time and venue of the concerned designated place and shall direct the witness to attend in person along with proof of identity. If a person is examined with reference to a particular document then the process to witness must be accompanied by a copy of the document:

Provided that nothing in this rule shall preclude a Court from conducting trials, inquiries and proceedings in electronic mode, by use of electronic communication or use of audio-video electronic means.

13. Examination of persons and witnesses through video conferencing and other modes of audio-visual electronic communication.–

(1) The person being examined through video conferencing and other modes of audio-visual electronic communication shall ordinarily be examined during the working hours of the court concerned or at such time as the court may deem fit,

(2) Where the person being examined is an accused, the court shall provide adequate opportunity to consult with his advocate before and after the video conferencing.

(3) The Court shall read over and explain the evidence recorded to the witness and obtain the signature of the person being examined on the transcript immediately after the examination is concluded. The signed transcript shall form part of the record of the judicial proceedings. The signature on the transcript of the person being examined shall be obtained in either of the following ways :–

(a) If digital signatures are available at both the concerned Court Point and remote point, the copy of the transcript digitally signed by the Presiding Officer at the Court Point shall be sent by the designated videoconferencing, software or official e-mail to the coordinator at remote point where a print out of the same shall be taken and signed by the person being examined. A scanned copy of the transcript digitally signed by the coordinator at the remote point shall be transmitted by the designated video conferencing software or official e-mail of the Court Point;

(b) If digital signatures are not available, the printout of the transcript shall be signed by the presiding Judge, at the Court Point and shall be sent in non-editable scanned format by the designated video conferencing software or official e-mail account of the designated place or e-mail of the coordinator at remote point where a printout of the same shall be taken and signed by the person examined and countersigned by the coordinator at the remote point. A non-editable scanned format of the transcript so signed shall be sent by the coordinator at the remote point by the designated video conferencing software or official e-mail to the Court Point where a print out of the same shall be taken and shall be made a part of the judicial record.

(4) The Court may, at the request of a person to be examined, or on its own motion, taking into account the best interest of the person to be examined, direct appropriate measures to protect the privacy of the person examined bearing in mind aspects such as age, gender, physical condition and recognized customs and practices.

(5) The coordinator at the designated place shall ensure that no person is present at the remote point, save and except the person being examined and those whose presence is deemed administratively necessary by the coordinator for the proceedings.

(6) The Court may also impose such other conditions as are necessary in for effective hearing of cases through video conferencing and other modes of audio-video electronic communication.

(7) If the Court thinks fit, the required person may be permitted to connect through video conferencing or other modes of audio-visual electronic communication from the place of his residence or work:

Provided that evidence of a witness shall be recorded only from the designated place, except in situation hereinafter provided.

(8) Where a required person is not capable of reaching the Court Point or the designated place due to sickness or physical infirmity, or whose presence cannot be secured without undue delay or expense, the Court may authorize conduct of video conferencing from the place at which such person is located. In such circumstances the court may direct the use of portable video conferencing systems and ensure presence as it may deem fit.

(9) Where the court is of opinion, for the reasons recorded in writing that, evidence of the witness cannot be effectively recorded, may decline to examine such witness through video conferencing.

14. Exhibiting or showing documents to witness or accused at a remote point.–

If in the course of examination of a person at a remote point by video conferencing, it is necessary to show a document to the person, the Court may permit the document to be shown in the following manner :–

(a) if the document is at Court Point, by transmitting the document through document visualizer;

(b) if the document is at Court Point, but document visualizer is not available, by transmitting a copy or image of the document to the remote point electronically through the designated video conferencing software or official e-mail;

(c) if the document is at the remote point, by transmitting a copy or image of the document to the Court Point electronically through the designated video conferencing software or official e-mail. The hard copy of the document counter signed by the witness and the coordinator at the designated place shall also be dispatched to the Court Point.

15. Ensuring seamless video conferencing.–

(1) The coordinator at Court Point shall provide the live link of the video conferencing hearing with advocates or the required person.

(2) If the proceedings are carried out from any place other than a remote point, the coordinator, if any, at such remote point shall ensure compliance of all technical requirements,

(3) The coordinator at the Court Point shall be in contact with the concerned advocate or the required person and guide them in regard to the fulfillment of technical and other requirements for executing a successful hearing through video conferencing. Any problem faced by such advocate or the required person shall be resolved by the coordinator at Court Point.

(4) The coordinator at the Court Point shall ensure that any document or audio-visual files, e-mailed by the advocate or the required person, are duly received at the Court Point.

16. Remand.–

The court may authorize detention in judicial custody, of any person accused of an offence, by video conferencing or other modes of audio-visual electronic communication as per the provisions of section 187 BNSS:

Provided that if the accused is already in judicial custody, whether of same Court or some other Court or is undergoing sentence, the Court may further remand him during inquiry or trial under section 346(2) of the BNSS through video conferencing or other modes of audio-visual electronic communication.

17. Plea bargaining.–

The Court may also use the modes of audio-visual electronic communication for the purpose of plea bargaining under Chapter XXIII of the BNSS.

18. Record of proceedings through audio-visual electronic communication.–

Wherever any proceeding is carried out by the Court under these rules by taking recourse to the modes of audio visual electronic communication, the Court shall mention in the order sheet, that the hearing is conducted through video conferencing.

CHAPTER–V

General Procedure

19. General Procedure.–

(1) The procedure set out hereinafter in this chapter is without prejudice to the procedure indicated elsewhere in these rules where proceedings are conducted through video conferencing or other modes of audio visual electronic communication.

(2) The coordinator at the Court Point shall ensure that video conferencing is conducted only through a designated video conferencing software:

Provided that in the event of a technical fault or for any other sufficient cause, the Court may for reasons to be recorded in writing, permit the use of a software other than the designated video conferencing software for video conferencing in that particular proceeding:

Provided further that nothing contained in these rules shall prevent a Court, after recording its reasons in writing, from using any software other than the designated video conferencing software or other modes of audio visual electronic communication, to facilitate the hearing of cases in electronic mode.

(3) In criminal cases, where the person to be examined is a prosecution witness, or a court witness, or a defence witness, or a person is to make submission for prosecution, or a person is to make submission for defence, the advocate for the prosecution or defence or the accused, as the case may be, shall confirm to the Court the location of the person, and the time, place and technical facilities available for such video conferencing.

(4) If the accused is in custody and not present at the Court Point, the Court shall order a multi-point video conference between Court Point, the witness and the accused in custody to facilitate recording of the statement of the witness including medical or other experts.

20. Conduct of Proceedings.–

(1) All advocates, required persons, the party in person or any other person permitted by the Court to remain physically or virtually present (hereinafter collectively referred to as participants), shall have their presence recorded. However, in case participants are desirous that their face or name be masked, information to that effect shall be furnished to the Court Point coordinator prior to the commencement of proceedings for the approval of the Court.

(2) All Advocates, Required Persons, the party in person and/or any other person permitted by the Court to remain physically or virtually present (hereinafter collectively referred to as participants) shall abide by the requirements set out in Schedule 1.

(3) The Court Point coordinator shall send the live link on mobile number furnished by the participants permitted to be virtually present in the Court. Once the proceedings have commenced, no other person shall be permitted to participate in the virtual hearing, except with the permission of Court.

(4) Participation in the proceedings through video conferencing shall constitute consent by the participants to the proceedings being recorded.

(5) Establishment and disconnection of links between the Court Point and the remote point shall be regulated by orders of the Court.

(6) The Court shall satisfy itself that the advocate, required person or any other participant that the court deems necessary at the remote point or the Court Point can be seen and heard clearly and can clearly see and hear the Court.

(7) To ensure that video conferencing is conducted seamlessly, the difficulties, if any, experienced in connectivity must be brought to the notice of the Court at the earliest on the mobile number of the Court Point coordinator which has been furnished to the participant before the commencement of the video conferencing.

No complaint shall be entertained subsequently.

21. Third parties to the case.–

(1) Third parties may be allowed to remain present during video conferencing only upon a specific order of the Court. However, they shall be passive participants and shall not be allowed to make any submission without permission of the Court.

(2) Where, for any reason, a person unconnected with the case is present at the remote point, that person shall be identified by the coordinator at the remote point at the beginning of the proceedings and the purpose of the presence of that person shall be conveyed to the Court. Such person shall continue to remain present only with the permission of the Court.

22. Costs of Video Conferencing.–

In the absence of rules prescribed by the concerned Court, the Court may take into consideration the following circumstances when determining and/or apportioning the costs of video conferencing :–

(a) In criminal cases, the expenses of the video conferencing facility including expenses involved in preparing soft copies/certified copies of the Court record and transmitting the same to the Coordinator at the Remote Point, and the fee payable to the translator/interpreter/special educator, as the case may be, as also the fee payable to the Coordinator at the Remote Point, shall be borne by such party as directed by the Court.

(b) Besides the above, the Court may also make an order as to expenses as it considers appropriate, taking into account the rules/instructions regarding payment of expenses to the complainant and witnesses, as may be prevalent from time to time.

(c) It shall be open to the Court to waive the costs as warranted in a given situation.

23. Access to Legal Aid Clinics/Camps/Lok Adalats/Jail Adalats.–

a. In conformity with the provisions of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 and the laws in force, in proceedings related to Legal Aid Clinics, Camps, Lok Adalats or Jail Adalats, any person who at the Remote Point is in Jail or Prison shall be examined by the Chairman / Secretary of the District Legal Service Authority or Members of Lok Adalats before passing any award or orders as per law.

b. Such award or order shall have the same force as if it was passed by the regular Lok Adalat or Jail Adalat.

c. Copy of the award or order and the record of proceedings shall be sent to the Remote Point.

24. Allowing persons who are not parties to the case to view the proceedings.–

To observe the requirement of an open Court proceeding, members of the public will be allowed to view Court hearings conducted through video conferencing, except proceedings ordered for reasons recorded in writing to be conducted in camera. The Court shall endeavour to make available sufficient links (consistent with available bandwidth) for accessing the proceedings.

CHAPTER–VI

Miscellaneous

25. Reference to Words and Expressions.–

Words and expressions used and not defined in these Rules shall have the same meaning as assigned to them in the BNSS, the BSA, the IT Act, and the General Clauses Act, 1897.

26. Power to Relax.–

(g) Circle Officer(s)

(h) Any other person who has been trained as Mediator

(i) Any leading citizen of the locality whom the Nyayadhikari finds fit to work as Mediator

23. The Conciliator shall ensure that the parties involved in the conciliation are fairly informed and have an adequate understanding of the procedural aspects of conciliation and he shall not indulge in conduct unbecoming of a Conciliator.

24. Upon submission of report by the Conciliator/Conciliators, the Gram Nyayalaya shall take up the matter for hearing on a date fixed therefor and shall pronounce judgment or order in terms thereof unless it considers the terms of the settlement unconscionable or illegal.

25. If the parties do not settle their dispute, or where the terms of settlement appears to be unconscionable or illegal, the Gram Nyayalaya shall proceed to hear the parties and dispose of the matter on merits in accordance with law.

26. The Gram Nyayadhikari will maintain the register of all matters referred and response received from Conciliators.

27. The remuneration to the Conciliators shall be paid as prescribed by the Governments of UTs of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh.

CHAPTER-V

28. (i) The District & Sessions Judge or any other Senior Judicial Officer as nominated or authorized by the District & Sessions Judge shall inspect the Gram Nyayalayas within his/her jurisdiction once in every six months or as directed by the High Court.

(ii) The Annual Confidential Report of the Nyayadhikari shall be written by the concerned Chief Judicial Magistrate and upon reviewing by the respective District & Sessions Judge, shall be submitted before the High Court.

29. The Gram Nyayalayas shall observe such holidays, as may be notified by the Governments of UTs of J&K and Ladakh respectively from time to time.

30. The provision of the Indian Limitation Act, 1963 shall be applicable to the proceedings before Gram Nyayalayas and no suit or proceeding shall be initiated for which the period of limitation as prescribed has expired.

31. The High Court of J&K and Ladakh shall have power to amend, modify, delete or relax any provision of these rules, as may be deemed necessary.

By order.

The instant application has been moved by Shri Krishan Rattan PID No. 984943/ARP SDPO Pampore (I.O of the Case) through Ld. APP of this Court seeking therein declaration of one Owais Ferooz Mir S/o Ferooz Ahmad Mir R/o Village Frestbal Tehsil Pampore District Pulwama who is involved in the criminal case which is covered by Case FIR No. 42/2018 U/Ss 18, 20 and 38 UA (P) Act of P/S Pampore as Proclaimed offender owing to absconding of the said accused.

This Court on the request of the applicant investigating agency has issued a proclamation against the said accused in terms of Section 82 Cr. PC but despite the issuance of the said process, the absconding accused did not appear either before the investigating agency or before this Court and is continuously absconding.

Heard Ld. APP, perused the application connected documents and Charge Sheet of the case.

Upon the perusal of record it appears that on the request of investigaing agency this Court issued Non Bailable warrant of arrest in terms of Section 73 Cr. PC against the above named accused vide Order Dated 04-08-2023 and when investigating agency despite employing all efforts could not effect the arrest of accused a motion was laid before this Court for issuance of proclamation against the said accused in terms of Section 82 Cr. PC and this Court vide order dated 31-08-2023 issued the requisite proclamation for the reasons stated therein. It is also evident from the perusal of record that the proclamation issued against the above named accused was publically read at conspicuous place in the native village of the accused and said proclaimation was also pasted at conspicuous place of the house of accused, District Court Complex, Pulwama and Court Complex Pampore and also published in Urdu Dailies ‘‘Altaf, Muqsa’’ and English Daily ‘‘The Kashmir Monitor’’ but the above named accused has not shown up either before the Investigating Oficer or before this Court till date and is continuously absconding.

Having regard to the peculiar facts and circumstances attending the matter, the application at hand is allowed. Let a declaration for declaring the above named accused as proclaimed offender be issued accordingly and same may be got published at least in 02 leading News Papers and Government Gazette.

The application is disposed off and shall form part of Chargesheet.

Announced
05-04-2025.
