ORDERS BY THE GOVERNOR

NOTIFICATIONS

The 11th August, 2025

E-674955/2025/6..Whereas, it has been noticed that many Tea Gardens in Assam have changed their possession on the basis of a Court Ordered Amalgamation scheme without the registration of such transfer of property and the realization of the appropriate stamp duty.

Whereas, such transactions while transferring possession do not automatically lead to a transfer of property rights, leading to a situation where the economic value of the underlying asset remains underutilised.

Whereas, the Supreme Court in its various judgements like the Hindustan Lever vs State of Maharashtra on 18th November, 2003 (AIR 2004 SUPREME COURT 326), Delhi High Court in Delhi Towers Ltd. vs GNCT of Delhi etc. have ruled that the order passed by Court under Section 394 of The Companies Act, 1956 is based upon compromise between two or more companies and this is an instrument which transfers the properties and held that amalgamation schemes sanctioned under Section 394 of the Companies Act, 1956 would be subject to stamp duty.

Whereas, it may be noted that Section 35 of The Indian Stamp Act, 1899 states that "No instrument chargeable with duty shall be admitted in evidence for any purpose by any person having by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence, or shall be acted upon, registered or authenticated by any such person or by any public officer, unless such instrument is duly stamped".

Whereas, the Supreme Court in the Suraj Lamp & Industries (P) vs State Of Haryana (AIR 2012 SUPREME COURT 206) has ruled that any agreement to sell which is not a registered deed of conveyance would fall short of requirements of section 54 and 55 of Transfer of Property Act, 1882 and will not confer any title nor transfer any interest in an immovable property.

Whereas, according to the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 an agreement of sale, whether with possession or without possession, is not a conveyance and whereas Section 54 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 enacts that sale of immovable property can be made only by a registered instrument and an agreement of sale does not create any interest or charge on its subject matter and cannot be recognized as deeds of title, except to the limited extent of section 53A of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 and such transactions cannot be relied upon or made the basis for mutations in Revenue Records.

Whereas, the Supreme Court in its various pronouncements has mentioned that 'execution' is typically defined as the date the parties sign the instrument and in the case of court orders, the date of execution is the date on which the court sanctions the scheme, not the date the company takes action to pay the duty.

Whereas, further as per Section 35 of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899, in case any instrument is insufficiently stamped, a penalty of up to ten times the amount of the proper duty can be realized from the parties.

Whereas, the penalty amount in such cases turns out to be substantially significant in comparison to the valuation of the Tea Land.

Whereas, under Section 9(1) of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 "The Government may, by rule or order published in the Official Gazette, reduce or remit, whether prospectively or retrospectively, the whole or any part of the duties with which any instruments or any particular class of instruments or any of the instruments belonging to such class, or any instruments when executed by or in favour of any particular class of persons, or by or in favour of any members of such class, are chargeable..."

Whereas, Section 17(2) (vi) of The Registration Act, 1908 specifically exempts "any decree or order of a Court" from compulsory registration with limited exceptions. This exemption generally applies to court orders unless they are "expressed to be made on a compromise and comprising immovable property other than that which is the subject-matter of the suit or proceeding".

Whereas, the current practice of transfer of possession on the basis of a court ordered amalgamation without transfer of title has prevented the unlocking of the economic value of land in tea gardens and has led to continuous and avoidable loss of revenue to the State Government and unless such legacy cases are regularised, the affected tea gardens will continue to face restrictions in optimally utilising their land, thereby curtailing investment potential and limiting economic activity in the sector.

Whereas, the Competent Authority approved the collection of stamp duty at a concessional rate of 3% for registration of the amalgamation between M/s Moran Tea Company and M/s McLeod Russell India Ltd., as a one-time settlement.

Now therefore;

"In exercise of the powers conferred under the Section 9(1) of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 the Governor of Assam is hereby pleased to approve the collection of stamp duty at a concessional rate of 3% for the execution of the amalgamation between M/s Morani Tea Company and M/s McLeod Russel Ltd. as a one-time settlement.

In addition to the above, the Government of Assam also extends a similar benefit to Tea Gardens where past transfers have happened on the basis of an amalgamation scheme but have remained unregistered. In all such cases, the land records will be corrected by the concerned District Commissioners on the realization of 3% of stamp duty against the valuation of the Tea Garden on the day of the court ordered amalgamation. In the cases where the District Commissioners are not able to assess the valuation of the Tea Garden at the time of the amalgamation, they may calculate the stamp duty on the basis of the current valuation.

Further, the Government of Assam also waives off any penalty that is due on such transactions due to delay in payment of stamp duty.

In the case of the amalgamation scheme driven transfer between M/s Moran Tea Company and M/s McLeod Russel Ltd., District Commissioner & Collector, Dibrugarh is to realize the stamp duty for the aforementioned Tea Garden as per valuation of 2008, and on realization of the same, correct the land records in the name of M/s McLeod Russel Ltd.

This notification shall come into force from date of its publication in the Official Gazette.

LAMCHONGHOI SWEETY CHANGSAN,
Additional Chief Secretary to the Government of Assam, Revenue & D.M. Department.

ECF No. RLR.568854/20.- Whereas, Shri Ashirbad Hazarika, ALRS (DR-2019), the then Circle Officer (Attached), Dalgaoon Revenue Circle, Dist.- Darrang was placed under suspension w.e.f. 10/11/2022 vide Notification No. RDM-11/248/2022-LR-REV/ECF 246874/4 dated 12/11/2022, subsequent to his arrest on 10/11/2022 in connection with Dhula PS Case No.114/2022 U/S 376/302 IPC R/W Section 10 POCSO and R/W Sec. 14 Child Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act, 1986, Added Section 120B/218/201 IPC;
