MISCELLANEOUS

hearing. If the application is not disposed off within such period, the Presiding Officer shall furnish reasons thereof in the order itself. - (ii) The Presiding Officer may, in an appropriate case in its discretion insist on a statement to be filed by the prosecutor in charge of the case.

2. SEPARATION OF PROSECUTORS AND INVESTIGATORS:

The State Governments shall appoint advocates, other than Public Prosecutors, to advise the Investigating Officer during investigation.

3. DIRECTIONS FOR EXPEDITIOUS TRIAL:

- (i) In every enquiry or trial, the proceedings shall be held as expeditiously as possible, and, in particular, when the examination of witnesses has once begun, the same shall be continued from day to day until all the witnesses in attendance have been examined, unless the court finds the adjournment of the same beyond the following day to be necessary for reasons to be recorded [Section 309 (1) of Cr.P.C. / Section 346 (1) of BNSS]. For this purpose, at the commencement, and immediately after framing charge, the court shall hold a scheduling hearing, to ascertain and fix consecutive dates for recording of evidence, regard being had to whether the witnesses are material, or eyewitnesses, or formal witnesses or are experts. The court then shall draw up a schedule indicating the consecutive dates, when witnesses would be examined; it is open to schedule recording of a set of witness' depositions on one date, and on the next date, other sets, and so on. The court shall also, before commencement of trial, ascertain if the parties wish to carry out admission of any document under Section 294 of Cr.P.C. or Section 330 of BNSS, as the case may be, and permit them to do so, after which such consecutive dates for trial shall be fixed.
- (ii) After the commencement of the trial, if the court finds it necessary or advisable to postpone the commencement of, or adjourn, any inquiry or trial, it may, from time to time, for reasons to be recorded postpone or adjourn the same on such terms as it thinks fit, for such time as it considers reasonable. If witnesses are in attendance no adjournment or postponement shall be granted, without examining them, except for special reasons to be recorded, in writing [Section 309 (2) of Cr.P.C. / Section 346 (2) BNSS].
- (iii) Sessions cases may be given precedence over all other work and no other work should be taken up on sessions days until the sessions work for the day is completed. A Sessions case once posted should not be postponed unless that is unavoidable, and once the trial has begun, it should proceed continuously from day today till it is completed. If for any reason, a case has to be adjourned or postponed, intimation should be given forthwith to both sides and immediate steps be taken to stop the witnesses and secure their presence on the adjourned date.”
