Provided that the deposit made by each insurer in the group is not less than that proportion of the total deposit required to be made under sub-section (1) as the proportion of his share of the risk on each policy issued by the group bears to the total risk on that policy. 5

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, a “group” shall be deemed to be operating as such in India if the following conditions are fulfilled, namely:— 10

(1C) When a group of insurers ceases to be a group, every insurer in that group who continues to carry on any class of insurance business in India shall comply with the requirements of sub-section (1) as if he had not been an insurer in any group at any time and he shall pay, within a period of six months from the date of cessation of the group, in a lump sum, the amount of the instalments of deposit which he would have been required to make under sub-section (1A) before the date of cessation of the group had he not been an insurer in any group at any time, reduced by the amount of deposit, if any, made by him after the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968.

(1D) The Central Government may, at its discretion, extend the time for making any deposit or instalment of deposit required to be made by any insurer under the provisions of sub-sections (1), (1A), (1B) and (1C) by a period of not more than six months at a time:

(5) Where an insurer who intends to become a member of a group, does not carry on all the classes of insurance business carried on by the other insurers in such group, or, where out of the several insurers who desire to form themselves into a group, any insurer does not carry on all the classes of insurance business carried on by the other insurers who desire to form themselves into the group, such insurer may be registered for that class or those classes of insurance business which is or are carried on by all the members of the group, and where any application for registration is made by any such insurer, the Controller may, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (4), register such insurer for one or more additional classes of insurance if the following conditions are fulfilled, namely:—

(a) the Controller is satisfied that registration for the proposed one or more additional classes of insurance business would qualify the insurer to become a member of a group;

(b) agreements have been executed by all the insurers in the group or proposed group, as the case may be, and such agreements in the opinion of the Controller, satisfy the requirements of the Explanation to sub-section (1B); and

(6) No insurer shall, after the expiry of a period of one year from the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, pay to any person any fee or remuneration for surveying, verifying or certifying a claim of loss under a policy of insurance unless the person making such survey, verification or certification is an approved surveyor or loss assessor.

(7) If the Controller is satisfied that an approved surveyor or loss assessor has been guilty of wilfully making a false statement knowing it to be false or of being knowingly a party to the settlement of claim in a fraudulent manner, he may, after giving such surveyor or loss assessor an opportunity of being heard, remove his name from the list of approved surveyors and loss assessors with effect from such date as may be specified by him and shall notify such removal in the Official Gazette.

(8) Any surveyor or loss assessor whose name has been removed under sub-section (7) from the list of approved surveyors and loss assessors shall not be eligible for the inclusion of his name in the list of approved surveyors and loss assessors for a period of three years from the date on which the removal of his name is notified in the Official Gazette.

(9) The Controller may in respect of any claim of value of less than twenty thousand rupees on an insurance policy, if the claim has not been or is not proposed to be certified by a surveyor or loss assessor, direct that such claim shall be certified by an approved surveyor or loss assessor and where the Controller makes such direction, the provisions of sub-sections (3) and (4) shall apply in respect of such claim.

PART IIC

SOLVENCY MARGIN, ADVANCE PAYMENT OF PREMIUM AND RESTRICTIONS ON THE OPENING OF A NEW PLACE OF BUSINESS

Provided that where a number of insurers occupying the status of parent and subsidiary companies prepare, under the laws of origin of the parent company, a consolidated balance-sheet, the provisions of this sub-section shall apply to such of them as are not members of any group as if they constituted a single insurer, with the modification that the amount of two million rupees shall be construed as a sum equal to the number of such insurers multiplied by two million rupees:

Provided further that if in respect of any insurer the Central Government is satisfied that either by reason of an unfavourable claim experience or because of a sharp increase in the volume of new business, or for any other reason, compliance with the provisions of this sub-section would cause undue hardship to the insurer, it may direct that for such period and subject to such conditions as it may specify, the provisions of this sub-section shall apply to that insurer with the modification that instead of the proportion of twenty per cent. mentioned herein, such other percentage being not less than ten per cent. as may be specified by that Government shall be applicable to that insurer:

Provided also that in the case of an insurer carrying on insurance business at the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, it shall be sufficient compliance with the provisions of this sub-section until the 31st December, 1972 or until such subsequent date, not being later than 31st December, 1976, as the Central Government may, at its discretion, allow for any particular insurer, if he progressively brings up the excess of the value of his assets over the amount of his liabilities, in such manner as may be prescribed, to the required amount or percentage, as the case may be.

(6) The Central Government may, by rules, reduce the sum of two million rupees referred to in sub-section (1) to a lower figure not less than one hundred thousand rupees in respect of a country craft insurer or in respect of an insurer not having a share capital and operating only among a restricted portion of, and not with, the general public.

NEW DELHI;
The 11th March, 1968.

MORARJI DESAI.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLE 117 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of letter No. 51(23)-INS, I/67 dated the 11th March, 1968 from Shri Morarji Desai, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Finance to the Secretary, Lok Sabha.]

The President having been informed of the subject of the proposed Insurance (Amendment) Bill, 1968, recommends the introduction of the Bill in the Lok Sabha under clause (1) of article 117 and its consideration under clause (3) of article 117 of the Constitution.

Notes on Clauses

Clause 2 is consequential to the amendments proposed under clauses 6 and 15.

Clause 3 provides for increase of the fee for renewal of registration so as to cover part of the increased cost of administration consequent to the implementation of the proposals contained in this Bill.

Clauses 4 and 5 provide for the application of sections 6A and 6B relating to restrictions on shareholding and voting rights to insurers carrying on general insurance business also.

Clause 6 seeks to increase the deposit to be made by an insurer to rupees two millions for one or more classes of general insurance business and permits existing insurers to make the deposit in instalments. It also provides that insurers operating in a group need only make the deposit as a single insurer. The conditions to be fulfilled by a group for this purpose are also set out.

Clauses 7, 8 and 9 are consequential to the changes proposed to be made in section 7 under which the deposit will be the same for one or more classes of insurance business.

Clause 10—Consequential.

Clause 11.—The new section 27B is on the same lines as the existing section 27A with appropriate modifications and seeks to make the provisions of that section applicable to insurers, carrying on general insurance business. The new section provides that the investments of the assets of general insurers carrying on general insurance business should be made only in approved investments except for 25 per cent. or in certain special cases.

Clause 12 is consequential to clause 11 and provides for the furnishing of returns by insurers to the Controller of Insurance to enable the latter to verify compliance with the requirements of that section.

Clause 13.—Consequential.

Clause 14 seeks to omit, from the seventh proviso to sub-section (1) of section 31A, the discretion now vested in the Central Government to decide the maximum bonus which an insurer can give to his employees. The object is to bring the matter of bonus within the jurisdiction of Industrial Tribunals. This amendment has been necessitated by a decision of the Supreme Court in 1960.

Clause 15 inserts provisions in the existing section 33 to empower the Controller to carry out inspections of insurers whether on his own initiative or on the direction of the Central Government with provision for cancellation of the registration or applying for winding up in certain circumstances.

Clause 16 inserts new provisions. These are—

(i) power to the Controller to give directions to an insurer in the public interest or in the interests of better management,

(ii) restrictions on appointment, removal or on remuneration of certain officers and directors of an insurer,

(iii) power to the Controller to remove managerial and other persons from office in certain circumstances,

(iv) power to the Controller to appoint additional directors on the Board of an insurer,

(v) power to the Controller to caution insurers, to prohibit particular transactions or to render advice to insurers, to appoint observers to watch the proceedings at Board Meetings and to require the insurer to take certain steps considered necessary,

(vi) power to the Controller to issue certain directions regarding re-insurance treaties,

(vii) power to the Controller to order closure of uneconomic or prejudicially operating foreign branches, and

(viii) power to the Controller to search premises and seize books of accounts and other records belonging to an insurer in certain special circumstances.

Clause 17 inserts provisions to empower the Controller if he is satisfied that it is necessary to do so on certain grounds, to prepare a scheme for the amalgamation of an insurer with another insurer and after securing the suggestions or objections from both the insurers concerned, to place the scheme before the Central Government. When the Central Government approves the scheme it shall be final and legally binding and shall take effect from the date specified by the Central Government.

Clause 18 seeks to reduce the commission payable to an insurance agent on a fire insurance policy to 10 per cent. on the first rupees 50,000 of the premium, 5 per cent. on next rupees 1 lakh and nil thereafter. Safeguards are incorporated to ensure that this provision is not got round by splitting a single policy between different agents or between different insurers.

Clause 19 is intended to clarify a doubt in regard to the interpretation of section 40C; the amendment seeks to define more pre cisely the expenses which need not be treated as expenses of management for the purposes of the limitations imposed by the section.

Clause 20 raises the fees for licence of an insurance agent to rupees 25 for a period of 3 years. The increase is intended to cover part of the additional cost of administration which will result as a consequence of the implementation of the proposals contained in this Bill. The other changes made by the clause are minor.

Clause 21 seeks to delete section 48C of the principal Act which has been rendered superfluous by the provisions now being enacted through clause 16.

Clause 22 empowers the Central Government to acquire the business of an insurer on payment of compensation. The circumstances in which the business may be acquired, the basis on which compensation shall be paid, and provisions for setting up a Tribunal to resolve any dispute in regard to the amount of compensation are also set out.

Clause 23 adds "the public interest generally" as a ground for the Controller to apply for winding up an insurer. Also the Controller is being empowered to apply for winding up if the required solvency margin is not maintained.

Clause 24.—Consequential to the provisions of clause 6.

Clause 25.—Consequential to the provisions in clause 29.

Clause 26 is intended to clarify a doubt as to whether the Executive Committee of the General Insurance Council has the power to waive the collection of fees. The provision is being given retrospective effect.

Clauses 27 and 28.—Consequential.

Clause 29.—Two new Parts IIB and IIC are now being inserted. The former makes provisions for the setting up of a Statutory Body by the name of the Tariff Advisory Committee and for transferring thereto all the assets and liabilities of the existing Tariff Committee of the General Insurance Council. The new Committee will continue the work which the Tariff Committee has been doing, but the Controller, as the Chairman, will now have the deciding voice in regard to the rate finally fixed. Fees will be collected for running the Advisory Committee as the Tariff Committee has so far been doing. The factors to be given weight in fixing the rates are laid down. Provisions are also included to empower the Controller to maintain a pannel of approved surveyors and loss assessors. Every claim over rupees twenty thousand in value will have to be valued by a surveyor or loss assessor in the panel. The new Part IIC seeks to give statutory effect to certain salutary provisions now being observed by the insurers on a voluntary basis under a code of conduct. The most important provision being inserted in this Part is the requirement that every insurer shall maintain an excess of assets over liabilities to the extent of two million rupees or twenty per cent. of the net premium income, whichever is higher, failing which the insurer will be deemed to be insolvent. Existing insurers are, however, given time to make up the required excess progressively. It is also being provided that the premium should be received in advance before a risk is undertaken. Another provision is that the opening of a new branch will now require the prior permission of the Controller.

Clauses 30, 31 and 32 contain formal amendments of a verbal nature only. The references to Mutual Insurance Companies in sections 96, 97 and 98 are being omitted, with the object of making quite clear, what is even now true, that such companies carrying on general insurance business have to comply with the deposit requirements under section 7.

Clause 33 empowers the Controller to collect information about re-insurance treaties.

Clause 34 lays down the penalty for certain offences committed in respect of the new provisions being inserted under this Bill.

Clause 35 seeks to make the employees of insurers public servants for the purposes of Chapter IX of the Indian Penal Code.

Clause 36 makes provision in regard to cognizance of offences and competency of courts.

Clause 37.—A new section which is being added disallows compensation for the operation of some of the newly added provisions. Two other sections are added which make some of the main provisions now being inserted applicable to the general insurance business carried on by the Life Insurance Corporation of India and by the State Governments.

Clause 38 —Consequential.

Clause 39 makes an amendment to the Revenue Account in Form F for the same reason as that mentioned in clause 19.

Clause 40 inserts a new Schedule which sets out the method of arriving at the amount of compensation payable to the shareholders of an acquired insurer.

Clause 41 seeks to make an amendment to section 32 of the Payment of Bonus Act, 1965 whereby the provisions of that Act are made applicable to the employees of general insurance companies. This is consequential to the provisions contained in clause 14.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

The proposed amendments, particularly those relating to inspections and regulation of the premium structure, in clauses 15 and 29 would throw considerable additional burden on the Controller of Insurance whose office will have to be substantially augmented. The financial implication of the augmentation of the office of the Controller of Insurance would be finalised later, but the additional cost may be about rupees 25 lakhs per annum.

2. The additional cost is proposed to be met as under:

(a) The maximum fee leviable on an Insurance Agent is now Rs. 10 for three years. It is proposed to increase the maximum to Rs. 25. Having regard to the number of active agents of the Life Insurance Corporation and those in general insurance business elsewhere, this is expected to yield an additional amount of about rupees 10 lakhs per annum.

(b) The maximum fee now leviable on insurers for renewal of registration is rupees 1,000 for each class of business. It is proposed to increase this to one quarter per cent. of the net premium income, which is expected to yield an additional amount of rupees 17 lakhs per annum.

3. Clause 22 of the Bill seeks to empower the Central Government to acquire the undertaking of an insurer in certain circumstances on payment of compensation. These provisions are however only permissive and not mandatory. It is not possible to indicate at this stage the recurring and non-recurring expenditure arising out of these provisions. According to tentative estimates based on available information relating to the existing Indian insurers, the total amount of compensation payable in accordance with the principles set out in the Schedule in the event of all these insurers being taken over will be approximately rupees 30 crores. As regards the expenditure on the setting up of a Tribunal, this is likely to be incurred only if such a Tribunal is set up in the event of a specified percentage of shareholders of the acquired insurer not accepting the compensation. If the Tribunal is set up in respect of an acquired insurer, and is able to finish the work, within about six months, the non-recurring expenditure may not be in excess of rupees 1,50,000 and no recurring expenditure will be involved.

4. It is not possible at this stage to indicate when any insurer will be taken over under the provisions of the Bill. It will be necessary to watch, after the Bill has been passed into law, how far the insurers are working in accordance with the directions issued thereunder, and it will also be necessary to give to any individual insurer adequate opportunity to show cause before it is taken over. It is therefore unlikely that any insurer will be taken over in the current financial year or during the year 1968-69 and no recurring and non-recurring expenditure on this account is therefore anticipated during the current financial year or during 1968-69. The provisions which will have to be made in any of the financial years 1969-70 onwards cannot also be settled or anticipated. In any case, no such expenditure will be incurred by the Central Government without due appropriation made by Parliament from time to time in this behalf.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 11 seeks to empower the Central Government to prescribe the assets which, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, will be deemed to be approved investments.

Clause 12 seeks to give power to the Central Government to prescribe the form in which the returns of investments made under Section 27B are to be furnished.

Clause 15 seeks to give discretion to the Controller of Insurance to inspect insurers and also power to the Central Government to order an inspection by the Controller in special cases. The minimum information to be maintained by insurers for the purpose of facilitating such inspections may be prescribed by the Central Government.

Clause 16 inter alia seeks to empower the Controller to search premises and seize records relating to the transactions of an insurer in certain circumstances. In this connection power is sought to be vested in the Central Government to make rules with regard to the procedure for entering into any premises and for the safe custody of seized records.

Clause 17 seeks to empower the Controller to make a scheme with the approval of the Central Government for amalgamation of one insurer with another.

Clause 19 seeks to clarify the items of expenses which may be excluded for the purpose of ascertaining compliance with the provisions of section 40C of the Act. In that context it seeks to provide that the percentage of gross direct premium which may be excluded on account of head office expenses and the method of calculating the proper share of managerial expenses to be excluded may be prescribed by the Central Government.

Clause 22 seeks to insert provisions for the acquisition of the undertakings of insurers in certain cases and for the transfer of the undertaking of the acquired insurer to any corporation or company. The clause also seeks to empower the Central Government to make a scheme for carrying out the purposes of such acquisition, and transfer the acquired insurer, if necessary, to a corporation or company.

Clause 29 seeks to provide for the formation of a Tariff Advisory Committee which will take over all the functions of the existing Tariff Committee of the Central Insurance Council. For this purpose, power is sought to be vested in the Central Government to make rules with regard to a number of matters of procedural detail.

The clause also seeks to empower the Tariff Advisory Committee to make rules, with the previous approval of the Central Government on certain matters of procedural detail.

The clause further seeks inter alia to enact provisions for maintenance of a minimum solvency margin and for advance payment of premiums before risks are assumed and to empower the Central Government to make rules with regard to these matters.

All these are matters of procedural detail. The delegation or legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character.

S. L. SHAKDHER,
Secretary.
