“(g) any Family Pension Scheme framed under the Coal Mines Provident Fund and Bonus Schemes Act, 1948 or the Employees’ 46 of 1948. Provident Funds Act, 1952 for the purpose of providing family pen- 19 of 1952. sion and life assurance benefits to the employees covered by the said Scheme.”.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Coal Mines Provident Fund and Bonus Schemes Act, 1948 and the Employees' Provident Funds Act, 1952 provide for the institution of provident funds for employees in coal mines, factories and other establishments. Provident Fund is an effective old-age and survivorship benefit, but when the employee happens to die prematurely, the accumulations in the Provident Fund are too small to render adequate and long-term protection to his family. With a view to providing long-term financial security to the families of industrial employees in the event of their premature death, it is proposed to introduce a Family Pension Scheme for the employees covered under the two Acts, and to create a Family Pension Fund for this purpose by diverting a portion of the employer's and the employees' contributions to the Provident Fund, to which will be added a contribution by the Central Government. Out of the Fund so set up, it is proposed to pay Family Pension at prescribed scales to the survivors of employees who die while in service before reaching the age of superannuation. Besides Family Pension, a compulsory life insurance benefit of Rs. 1000 will also be payable to the survivors of the employees in the event of death in service. In the case of retirement, a lumpsum payment up to a maximum of Rs. 4000 will be made to the employee depending upon the length of his service. The terms and conditions for the grant of family pension will generally be the same as those applicable to the Central Government employees. The benefits payable under the Family Pension Scheme will be in addition to the payments due to the employees from the Provident Fund.

2. The proposed Scheme of Family Pension will be administered by the Board of Trustees, Coal Mines Provident Fund in respect of members of the Coal Mines Provident Fund, and by the Central Board of Trustees, Employees' Provident Fund, in respect of the employees of establishments covered by the Employees' Provident Funds Act, 1952. The cost of administration of the Family Pension Scheme in each case will be borne by the Central Government.

3. The Bill seeks to amend suitably the Coal Mines Provident Fund and Bonus Schemes Act, 1948 and the Employees' Provident Funds Act, 1952 in order to achieve these objectives.

D. SANJIVAYYA.

NEW DELHI;

The 23rd November, 1970.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLE 117 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of letter No. 16/1/70-PF.II (Vol. II), dated the 27th November, 1970 from Shri D. Sanjivayya, Minister of Labour and Rehabilitation to the Secretary, Lok Sabha.]

The President of India having been informed of the subject matter of the above-mentioned Bill has, in pursuance of clause (1) of article 117 of the Constitution, recommended the introduction of the said Bill in the Lok Sabha.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clauses 8 and 18 of the Bill envisage constitution of Family Pension Funds for the workers covered under the Coal Mines Provident Fund and Bonus Schemes Act, 1948 and the Employees' Provident Funds Act, 1952 by diversion of a portion of the employer's and the employees' contributions to the Provident Funds, to which will be added a contribution by the Central Government. It has been proposed that the contributions of the employer, employees and the Central Government to the Family Pension Funds may be as shown below:—

(1) Coal Mines Provident Fund :

(a) Employer	..	1½% of Pay.
(b) Employees	..	1½% of Pay.
(c) Central Government	..	1½% of Pay.

TOTAL : 4½% of Pay.

(2) Employees' Provident Fund :

(a) Employer	..	1½% of Pay.
(b) Employees	..	1½% of Pay.
(c) Central Government	..	1½% of Pay.

TOTAL : 3½% of Pay.

2. Clauses 8 and 18 of the Bill also envisage that the cost of administration of the Family Pension Fund Scheme will be paid by the Central Government.

3. The Coal Mines Provident Fund and Bonus Schemes Act, 1948 is applicable to about 4 lakhs of employees in coal mines. The Employees' Provident Funds Act, 1952 is at present applicable to about 55 lakhs of employees. Existing members of the Coal Mines Provident Fund and the employees of establishments already covered by the Employees' Provident Funds Act will be given option to come over to the Family Pension Scheme or to continue under the Provident Fund Scheme itself. It is expected that 75 per cent. of the employees already covered under the two Acts will opt for the Family Pension Scheme. But the possibility of 100 per cent. employees opting for the Family Pension Scheme cannot be ruled out.

4. Assuming that 75 per cent. of the employees covered under the Coal Mines Provident Fund and Bonus Schemes Act and the Employees' Provident Funds Act opt for the Family Pension Scheme, the annual financial liability of the Central Government and consequent expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India has been estimated as under:—

(1) Employees covered under the Coal Mines Provident Fund and Bonus Schemes Act :

(a) Central Government contribution to the Pension Fund at the rate of 1½% of pay.	Rs. 1.09 crores.
(b) Cost of administration	*Rs. 0.06 crores.

TOTAL .. Rs. 1.15 crores.

(2) Employees covered under the Employees'

Provident Funds Act:

- | | |
|---|-------------------|
| (a) Central Government contribution to the Pension Fund at the rate of $1\frac{1}{4}\%$ of pay. | Rs. 10.2 crores. |
| (b) Cost of administration | *Rs. 0.76 crores. |

TOTAL Rs. 10.96 crores.

If, however, 100 per cent. employees covered under the Coal Mines Provident Fund and Bonus Schemes Act and the Employees' Provident Funds Act opt for the Family Pension Scheme, the annual financial liability of the Central Government and consequent expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India will be as under:—

(1) Employees covered under the Coal Mines Provident Fund and Bonus Schemes Act :

- | | |
|---|-------------------|
| (a) Central Government contribution to the Pension Fund at $1\frac{1}{4}\%$ of pay. | Rs. 1.45 crores. |
| (b) Cost of administration | *Rs. 0.08 crores. |

TOTAL ... Rs. 1.53 crores.

(2) Employees covered under the Employees' Provident Funds Act :

- | | |
|---|-------------------|
| (a) Central Government contribution to the Pension Fund at $1\frac{1}{4}\%$ of pay. | Rs. 13.6 crores. |
| (b) Cost of administration | *Rs. 1.01 crores. |

TOTAL ... Rs. 14.61 crores.

The liability of the Central Government in respect of employees covered under the Employees' Provident Funds Act will increase proportionately with the expansion of coverage of the Act.

Note.—About 4 per cent. of the cost of administration represents non-recurring expenditure.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

The new section 3E of the Coal Mines Provident Fund and Bonus Schemes Act, 1948, proposed to be inserted under clause 8 of the Bill, seeks to empower the Central Government to frame the Coal Mines Family Pension Scheme for the purpose of providing family pension and life assurance benefits to the employees covered by the Coal Mines Provident Fund Scheme. Under clause 18 of the Bill, a corresponding provision is being made in the new section 6A of the Employees' Provident Funds Act, 1952 for providing similar family pension and life assurance benefits to the employees of establishments or class of establishments to which the said Act applies. Under the Family Pension Schemes which will be framed by the Central Government, the various matters which are to be provided therein, are enumerated in the new Second Schedule proposed to be inserted in the 1948-Act under clause 11 of the Bill and in new Schedule III proposed to be inserted in the 1952-Act under clause 30 of the Bill. It is clear that the provisions to be made in the Family Pension Scheme under both the Statutes, referred to above, will contain matters of detail and day-to-day working, e.g., the employees or class of employees to which the Schemes shall apply, the portion of employer's and employee's contribution to be credited to the Family Pension Funds, the contribution to be made by the Central Government towards the Fund, the scales of family pension and the assurance amount to be paid to the employees and the mode of disbursement thereof, and other like matters.

2. The delegation of legislative powers is, thus, of a normal character.

S. L. SHAKDHER,
Secretary.
