STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Section 79(b) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, defines the expression "candidate" as including a person who has held himself out as a prospective candidate. By virtue of this, a person may be deemed to be a candidate at an election for a long period even before the issue of the notification calling the election. So far as election expenses are concerned, section 77 of the Act as substituted in 1956 limits the returnable expenses only to the expenses incurred between the date of the publication of the notification calling the election and the date of declaration of the result thereof. In view of this it will be anomalous to retain the concept of prospective candidate for other purposes. It is, therefore, proposed to amend the definition of "candidate" in clause (b) of section 79 of the Act so as to provide that a person shall be deemed to be a candidate at an election from the date of publication of the notification calling the election and not from any earlier date and also to make the necessary consequential modification in the definition of the same expression in section 171A of the Indian Penal Code.

2. Under clause (3) of section 123 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, the use of, or appeal to, religious symbols or national symbols for the furtherance of the prospects of the election of a candidate or for prejudicially affecting the election of a candidate constitutes a corrupt practice. It is proposed to make it clear that symbols allotted under the Act to candidates shall not be deemed to be religious symbols or national symbols for the purposes of this clause.

3. According to clause (7) of section 123 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, the obtaining by a candidate of any assistance for the furtherance of the prospects of that candidate's election from certain classes of persons in the service of the Government amounts to a corrupt practice. It is proposed to make it clear that acts done for or in relation to a candidate by a person in the service of Government in the discharge or purported discharge of his official duty will not amount to assistance in furtherance of the prospects of that candidate's election. It is also proposed to make it clear that the expenditure incurred on the performance of such acts should not be included in the election expenditure of the candidate for the purposes of section 77 of the Act.

4. It is further proposed to amend clause (7) of section 123 to make it clear that the publication in the Official Gazette of the appointment, resignation, termination of service, dismissal or removal from service of a person in the service of the Government and of the date of taking effect thereof shall be conclusive proof of such appointment, resignation, termination, dismissal or removal from service and of the date of taking effect thereof.

5. The amendments proposed to be made in the Representation of the People Act will have retrospective effect so as to apply to elections held before the date of enactment of the Bill in respect of which election petitions may be filed or are pending.

6. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.
