(iv) rent courts and revenue courts.”.

FAKHRUDDIN ALI AHMED,
President.

K. K. SUNDARAM,
Secy. to the Govt of India.

Reasons for the enactment

Section 2 of the Tamil Nadu Official Language Act, 1956 (Tamil Nadu Act XXXIX of 1956) provides that the official language of the State of Tamil Nadu shall be Tamil. Section 4 of the said Act provides that the State Government may, by notification, direct that Tamil shall be used in respect of such official purposes as may be specified in such notification.

The Government of Tamil Nadu have proposed to declare Tamil as the language of all subordinate criminal courts for the purpose of writing judgments and orders with effect from the 14th November, 1976. When this is done, by reason of section 354(1) (a) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974), every Presiding Officer of subordinate criminal court has to write judgments in the language of the court, that is in Tamil, without any exception. The same will be the position in respect of civil courts subordinate to the High Court under section 137(2) of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), when such a declaration is made.

When Tamil is declared as the language of the courts for the purpose of writing judgments, decrees and orders, the Government of Tamil Nadu have proposed to vest with the High Court the power to exempt any class of Presiding Officers or any individual Presiding Officer of civil or criminal court subordinate to the High Court and also of tribunals so as to enable them to write judgments, decrees and orders or record evidence in English. So also, in the case of rent courts and revenue courts presided over by the officers of the Revenue Department, the power to grant such exemption is proposed to be vested with the Board of Revenue. The exemption will, however, be given only under specified circumstances and for specified period. The above exemptions cannot have legal validity unless specific statutory provisions are made in this regard.

It has, therefore, been decided to amend the Tamil Nadu Official Language Act, 1956 (Tamil Nadu Act XXXIX of 1956) providing for the continued use of English language in the said exempted cases, even after declaration of Tamil as the language of the courts subordinate to the High Court, tribunals, revenue courts and rent courts for the purpose of recording evidence and for writing judgments, decrees and orders.

This measure seeks to achieve the above objects.

In view of the urgency of the matter, it is not practicable to consult the Consultative Committee on Tamil Nadu Legislation constituted under the Tamil Nadu State Legislature (Delegation of Powers) Act, 1976 (41 of 1976). This measure is accordingly being enacted without reference to the Consultative Committee.

R. P. NAIK,

*Secretary to the Government of India,
Department of Official Language.*
