“(3) Every rule made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.”.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Section 14 of the Territorial Army Act, 1948 empowers the Central Government to make rules to carry out the purposes of the Act. The Act does not require the rules so made to be laid before Parliament.

2. As recommended by the Committee on Subordinate Legislation of the Sixth Lok Sabha, in its Twenty-first Report, it is proposed to make a provision in the Act for laying of rules framed thereunder before Parliament.

3. The Bill seeks to achieve the above object.
