Jammu and Kashmir Government—Notifications.

GOVERNMENT OF JAMMU AND KASHMIR
CIVIL SECRETARIAT HOME DEPARTMENT

Notification

Jammu, the 20th December, 2018.

SRO-583. Whereas, brief facts of the case are that P/S, Lalpora received an extract from Police Post, Khurhama vide DD No. 21 dated 09-05-2017 to the effect the ASI, Ab. Khaliq, No. 37/KP along with other police personnel were on patrolling duty at Village Khurhama. Meanwhile one person namely Mohd Ashraf Pir S/o Saif-u-Din R/o Takya, Khurhama had assembled a mob and was presenting a sermon against the State of J&K and India and was chanting slogans against the sovereignty of India and was instigating youth of the area to commit illegal activities etc. ; and

2. Whereas, in this connection, a case FIR No. 28/2017, under section 13 of the Unlawful Activities Prevention Act, 1967, came to be registered in Police Station, Lalpora ; and

[illegible]

3. Whereas, during the course of investigation, investigating officer visited the spot, drafted the site plan, recorded statements of witnesses under the relevant provisions of Law, and placed on record ; and

4. Whereas, as per the evidence gathered by the investigating agency prima facie case is made out against the accused person for the commission of offence under section 13 UAPA and investigation of the case was closed as challan ; and

5. Whereas, the Authority appointed by the State Government under sub-section (2) of section 45 of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967, has independently scrutinized the Case Diary file and all the other relevant documents relating to the case and has come to a definite conclusion that this is a fit case for accord of prosecution sanction against the said accused person for commission of offence punishable under section 13 of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967 ; and

6. Whereas, after perusing the Case Diary, the relevant documents and also taking into consideration the observations/views of the Authority appointed under sub-section (2) of section 45 of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967, the State Government is of the view that there is sufficient material and evidence available against the accused persons for his prosecution under the aforesaid provisions of law.

7. Now, therefore, in exercise of powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 45 of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967, the State Government hereby accords sanction for launching prosecution against Mohd Ashraf Pir S/o Saif-u-Din R/o Takya, Khurhama for the commission of offence punishable under section 13 of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967, arising out of FIR No. 28/2017 of Police Station, Lalpora.

Laws, Regulations and Rules passed thereunder.

GOVERNMENT OF JAMMU AND KASHMIR
CIVIL SECRETARIAT DEPARTMENT OF LAW, JUSTICE AND PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (Legislation Section)

Jammu, the 13th December, 2018.

The following Act has been assented to by the Governor on 13th December, 2018 and is hereby published for general information :

THE JAMMU AND KASHMIR CIVIL PROCEDURE (AMENDMENT) ACT, 2018

(Governor Act No. XLI of 2018)

[13th December, 2018.]

Enacted by the Governor in the Sixty-ninth Year of the Republic of India.

2 The J&K Govt. Gazette, 13th Dec., 2018/22nd Agra., 1940. [No. 37-1
An Act to amend the Code of Civil Procedure, Samvat, 1977.

In exercise of the powers vested under Proclamation No. P-1/18 of 2018 dated 20th June, 2018, the Governor is pleased to enact as follows :

1. Short title and commencement. (1) This Act may be called the Code of Civil Procedure (Amendment) Act, 2018.

(2) It shall come into force from the date of its publication in the Government Gazette.

2. Amendment of section 35. For section 35 of the Code of Civil Procedure, Samvat 1977 (hereinafter referred to as the 'Code'), the following section shall be substituted, namely :

“35. Costs. (1) In relation to any dispute, the court, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force or rule, has the discretion to determine :

- (a) whether costs are payable by one party to another ;
- (b) the quantum of those costs ; and
- (c) when they are to be paid.

Explanation : For the purpose of clause (a), the expression "costs" shall mean reasonable costs relating to

- (i) the fees and expenses of the witnesses incurred ;
- (ii) legal fees and expenses incurred ;
- (iii) any other expenses incurred in connect with the proceedings.

(2) If the court decides to make an order for payment of costs, the general rule is that the unsuccessful party shall be ordered to pay the costs to the successful party :

Provided that the court may make an order deviating from the general rule for reasons to be recorded in writing.

In such circumstances the court may impose costs on the plaintiff, despite the plaintiff being the successful party, for having raised frivolous claims for damages.

- (a) the conduct of the parties ;
- (b) whether a party has succeeded on part of its case, even if that party has not been wholly successful ;
- (c) Whether the party had made a frivolous counter-claim leading to delay in the disposal of the case ;
- (d) whether any reasonable offer to settle is made by a party and unreasonably refused by the other party ; and
- (e) whether the party had made a frivolous claim and instituted a vexatious proceeding wasting the time of the court.

- (a) a proportion of another party's costs ;
- (b) a stated amount in respect of another party's costs ;
- (c) costs from or until a certain date ;
- (d) costs incurred before proceedings have begun ;
- (e) costs relating to particular steps taken in the proceedings ;
- (f) costs relating to a distinct party of the proceedings; and
- (g) interest on costs from or until a certain date.

3. Amendment of section 35-A. In Section 35-A of the Code, sub-section (2) shall be omitted.

(A) In Order V, in Rule 1, in sub-rule (1), for the second proviso, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely,ii

(B) In Order VII, after Rule 2, the following rule shall be inserted, namely :i i

(2) Where the plaintiff seeks interest, the plaintiff shall state whether the plaintiff is seeking interest in relation to a commercial transaction within the meaning of section 34 of the Code of Civil Procedure, Samvat, 1977 and, furthermore, if the plaintiff is doing so under the terms of a contract or under an Act, in which case the Act is to be specified in the plaint; or on some other basis and shall state the basis of that.

(a) the rate at which interest is claimed ;

- (C) in Order VIII,ii ii

(2) The list of documents filed with the plaint shall specify whether the documents in the power, possession, control or custody of the plaintiff are originals, office copies or photocopies and the list shall also set out in brief, details of parties to each document, mode or execution, issuance or receipt and line of custody of each document.

(3) The plaint shall contain a declaration on oath from the plaintiff that all documents in the power, possession, control, or custody of the plaintiff, pertaining to the facts and circumstances of the proceedings initiated by him have been disclosed and copies thereof annexed with the plaint, and that the plaintiff does not have any other documents in its power, possession, control or custody.

Explanation :i i A declaration on oath under this sub-rule shall contain in the Statement of Truth as set out in the Appendix I.

(4) In case of urgent filings, the plaintiff may seek leave to rely on additional documents, as part of the above declaration on oath and subject to grant of such leave by court, the plaintiff shall file such additional documents in court, within thirty days of filing the suit, along with a declaration on oath that the plaintiff has produced all documents in its power, possession, control or custody, pertaining to the facts and circumstances of the proceedings initiated by the plaintiff and that the plaintiff does not have any other documents, in its power, possession, control or custody.

(5) The plaintiff shall not be allowed to rely on documents, which were in the plaintiff's power, possession, control or custody and not disclosed along

8 The J&K Govt. Gazette, 13th Dec., 2018/22nd Agra., 1940. [No. 37-1 with plaintiff or within the extended period set out above, save and except by leave of court and such leave shall be granted only upon the plaintiff establishing reasonable cause for non-disclosure along with the plaint.

(6) The plaint shall set out details of documents, which the plaintiff believes to be in the power, possession, control or custody of the defendant and which the plaintiff wishes to rely upon and seek leave for production thereof by the said defendant.

(7) The defendant shall file a list of all documents and photocopies of all documents, in its power, possession, control or custody, pertaining to the suit, along with the written statement or with its counter-claim if any, including

- (a) the documents referred to and relied on by the defendant in the written statement ;
- (b) the documents relating to any matter in question in the proceeding in the power, possession, control or custody of the defendant, irrespective of whether the same is in support of or adverse to the defendant's defence ;
- (c) nothing in this rule shall apply to documents produced by the defendants and relevant only to
 - (i) for the cross-examination of the plaintiff's witnesses ;
 - (ii) in answer to any case set up by the plaintiff subsequent to the filing of the plaint ; or
 - (iii) handed over to a witness merely to refresh his memory.

(8) The list of documents filed with the written statement or counter-claim shall specify whether the documents, in the power, possession, control or custody of the defendant, are originals, office copies or photocopies and the list shall also set out in brief, details of parties to each document being produced by the defendant, mode of execution, issuance or receipt and line of custody of each document.

(9) the written statement or counter-claim shall contain a declaration on oath made by the deponent that all documents in the power, possession,

No. 37-1] The J&K Govt. Gazette, 13th Dec., 2018/22nd Agra., 1940. 9 control or custody of the defendant, save and except for those set out in sub-rule (7) (c) (iii), pertaining to the facts and circumstances of the proceedings initiated by the plaintiff or in the counter-claim, have been disclosed and copies thereof annexed with the written statement or counter-claim and that the defendant does not have in its power, possession, control or custody, any other documents.

(10) Save and except for sub-rule (7) (c) (iii), defendant shall not be allowed to rely on documents, which were in the defendant's power, possession, control or custody and not disclosed along with the written statement or counter-claim, save and except by leave of court and such leave shall be granted only upon the defendant establishing reasonable cause for non-disclosure along with the written statement or counter-claim.

(11) The written statement or counter-claim shall set out details of documents in the power, possession, control or custody of the plaintiff, which the defendant wishes to rely upon and which have not been disclosed with the plaint, and call upon the plaintiff to produce the same.

(12) Duty to disclose documents, which have come to the notice of a party, shall continue till disposal of the suit.

2. Discovery by interrogatories. (1) In any suit the plaintiff or defendant by leave of the court may deliver interrogatories in writing for the examination of the opposite parties or anyone or more of such parties, and such interrogatories when delivered shall have a note at the foot thereof stating which of such interrogatories each of such persons is required to answer :

Provided that no party shall deliver more than one set of interrogatories to the same party without an order for that purpose :

Provided further that interrogatories which do not relate to any matters in question in the suit shall be deemed irrelevant, notwithstanding that they might be admissible on the oral cross-examination of a witness.

(2) On an application for leave to deliver interrogatories, the particular interrogatories proposed to be delivered shall be submitted to the court, and that court shall decide within seven days from the day of filing of the said application, in deciding upon such application, the court shall take into account

10 The J&K Govt. Gazette, 13th Dec., 2018/22nd Agra., 1940. [No. 37-1 any offer, which may be made by the party sought to be interrogated to deliver particulars, or to make admissions, or to produce documents relating to the matters in question, or any of them, and leave shall be given as to such only of the interrogatories submitted as the court shall consider necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs.

(3) In adjusting the costs of the suit inquiry shall at the instance of any party be made into the propriety of exhibiting such interrogatories, and if it is the opinion of the taxing officer or of the court, either with or without an application for inquiry, that such interrogatories have been exhibited unreasonably, vexatiously, or at improper length, the costs occasioned by the said interrogatories and the answers thereto shall be paid in any event by the party in fault.

(4) Interrogatories shall be in the form provided in Form No. 2 in Appendix C to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1977, with such variations as circumstances may require.

(5) Where any party to a suit is a corporation or a body of persons, whether incorporated or not, empowered by law to sue or be sued, whether in its own name or in the name of any officer of other person, any opposite party may apply for any order allowing him to deliver interrogatories to any member or officer of such corporation or body, and an order may be made accordingly.

(6) Any objection to answering any interrogatory on the ground that it is scandalous or irrelevant or not exhibited bona fide for the purpose of the suit, or that the matters required into are not sufficiently material at that stage, or on the ground of privilege or any other ground may be taken in the affidavit in answer.

(7) Any interrogatories may be set aside on the ground that they have been exhibited unreasonably or vexatiously, or struck out on the ground that they are prolix, oppressive, unnecessary or scandalous and any application for this purpose may be made within seven days after service of the interrogatories.

(8) Interrogatories shall be answered by affidavit to be filed within ten days, or within such other time as the court may allow.

(9) An affidavit in answer to interrogatories shall be in the form provided in Form No. 3 in Appendix C to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1977, with such variations as circumstances may require.

(10) No exceptions shall be taken to any affidavit in answer, but the sufficiency or otherwise of any such affidavit objected to as insufficient shall be determined by the court.

3. Inspection. (1) All parties shall complete inspection of all documents disclosed within thirty days of the date of filing of the written statement or written statement to the counter-claim, whichever is later. The court may extend this time limit upon application at its discretion, but not beyond thirty days in any event.

(3) Order in such application shall be disposed of within thirty days of filing such application, including filing replies and rejoinders (if permitted by court) and hearing.

(5) No party shall be permitted to rely on a document, which it had failed to disclose or of which inspection has not been given, save and except with leave of court.

(6) The Court may impose exemplary costs against a defaulting party, who willfully or negligently failed to disclose all documents pertaining to a suit or essential for a decision therein and which are in their power, possession, control or custody or where a court holds that inspection or copies of any documents had been wrongfully or unreasonably withheld or refused.

4. Admission and denial of documents. (1) Each party shall submit a statement of admissions or denials of all documents disclosed and of which

inspection has been completed, within fifteen days of the completion of inspection or any later date as fixed by the court.

(2) The statement of admissions and denials shall set out explicitly, whether such party was admitting or denying :

- (a) correctness of contents of a document ;
- (b) existence of a document ;
- (c) execution of a document ;
- (d) issuance or receipt of a document ;
- (e) custody of a document.

Explanation : A statement of admission or denial of the existence of a document made in accordance with sub-rule (2) (b) shall include the admission or denial of the contents of a document.

(3) Each party shall set out reasons for denying a document under any of the above grounds and bare and unsupported denials shall not be deemed to be denials of a document and proof of such documents may then be dispensed with at the direction of the court.

(4) Any party may however submit bare denials for third party documents of which the party denying does not have any personal knowledge of, and to which the party denying is not a party to in any manner whatsoever.

(5) An affidavit in support of the statement of admissions and denials shall be filed confirming the correctness of the contents of the statement.

(6) In the event that the court holds that any party has unduly refused to admit a document under any of the above criteria, costs (including exemplary costs) for deciding on admissibility of a document may be imposed by the court on such party.

(7) The court may pass orders with respect to admitted documents including for waiver of further proof thereon or rejection of any documents.

5. Production of documents. (1) Any party to a proceeding may seek or the court may order, at any time during the pendency of any suit, production by any party or person, of such documents in the possession or power of such party or person, relating to any matter in question in such suit.

(3) Any party or person to whom such notice to produce is issued shall be given not less than seven days and not more than fifteen days to produce such document or to answer to their inability to produce such document.

6. Electronic Records. (1) In case of disclosures and inspection of electronic records [as defined in the Information Technology Act, 2000 (Central Act No. 21 of 2000), furnishing of printouts shall be sufficient compliance of the above provisions.

(3) Where electronic records form part of documents disclosed, the declaration on oath to be filed by a party shall specify i i

- (a) the parties to such electronic record ;
- (b) the manner in which such electronic record was produced and by whom ;
- (c) the date and time of preparation or storage or issuance or receipt of each such electronic record ;
- (d) the source of such electronic record and date and time when the electronic record was printed ;
- (e) in case of e-mail ids, details of ownership, custody and access to such e-mail ids ;

- (g) deponent's knowledge of contents and correctness of contents ;

been produced, has been made from the original Electronic Records.

(5) The court may give directions for admissibility of electronic records at any stage of the proceedings.

(6) Any party may seek directions from the court and the court may of its motion issue directions for submission of further proof of any electronic record including metadata or logs before admission of such electronic record.

E. Insertion of Order XV-A.ii After Order XV of the Code, the following order shall be inserted, namely :ii
