GOVERNMENT OF JAMMU And KASHMIR
OFFICE OF THE COLLECTOR LAND ACQUISITION (ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER REVENUE), REASI.

Mini Secretariat, District Administrative Complex,
Reasi-182311 (J&K) India.

PRELIMINARY NOTIFICATION UNDER SECTION-11(1)

Subject :–Notification under section 11(1) of the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013 for land measuring 01 Kanal (local) at Village Sunarian, Tehsil Pouni, District Reasi likely to be required for "Construction of Veterinary Dispensary at Ransoo".

No. DC/Rsi/LA(ACR)/25-26/73-85 (7548676)

Dated 10-09-2025

Whereas, the Director, Sheep Husbandry Department, Jammu vide No. DSHJ/F&F/2025-26/1503-1505 dated 25-04-2025 has placed a formal indent for the acquisition of land for "Construction of Veterinary Dispensary at Ransoo situated at village Sunarian, Tehsil Pouni, District Reasi;

Whereas, vide SO.237 dated 23-07-2020 issued by the Revenue Department, J&K Government, Assistant Commissioner Revenue, Reasi has been designated as Collector Land Acquisition to perform the functions of a Collector in Tehsils Reasi, Pouni, Bhomag and Thakrakote under the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013;

Whereas, it appears to the appropriate Government that a total of 01 Kanal land is required in the Village Sunarian, Tehsil Pouni, District Reasi for public purpose, namely," Construction of Veterinary Dispensary at Ransoo situated at village Sunarian, Tehsil Pouni, District Reasi;

Whereas, under Rule 4(1) of The Jammu and Kashmir Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement (Social Impact Assessment and Consent) Rules, 2023, a preliminary committee consisting of officers from Revenue, Rural Development, PW (R&B), Jal Shakti, Irrigation and Flood Control, Sheep Husbandry, Social Welfare, Forest, Agriculture, Horticulture under the chairmanship of Tehsildar Pouni was constituted vide this office No. DC/Rsi/LA(ACR)/25-26/33-45 (7548676) dated 23-05-2025 for conducting Preliminary Enquiry for the above said acquisition. The committee so constituted visited the spot and submitted the Preliminary Enquiry Report to this Collectorate vide No. Teh/P/OQ/25-26/151-153 dated 07-07-2025;

Whereas, the committee submitted that the acquisition of land measuring 01 Kanal bearing Khasra No. 79 min situated at village Sunarian, Tehsil Pouni does not involve any type of involuntary displacement or any rehabilitation of the land owners;

Whereas, Rule 8 of "The Jammu and Kashmir Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement (Social Impact Assessment and Consent) Rules, 2023, provides that where no involuntary displacement of persons due to acquisition of land with no adverse impact, and no rehabilitation is involved, then the Collector shall obtain report of the committee as constituted under sub-rule (1) of rule 4 along with the consent of the interest persons (at least 70%) which shall be considered as SIA report and in such cases the Collector shall proceed for issuance of preliminary notification under section 11 of the Act.

Therefore, in view of the above, I, Nitin Verma (JKAS) Collector Land Acquisition Assistant Commissioner Revenue) Reasi, do hereby notify the land, description of which is given below and which is likely to be required for public purpose i.e. "Construction of Veterinary Dispensary at Ransoo situated at village Sunarian" Tehsil Pouni District Reasi.

This notification is made under the provisions of section 11(1) of the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013 (Act No.30/2013), to all whom it may concern.

A plan of the land may be inspected in the office of the Collector on any working day during the working hours. The appropriate Government authorizes Collector and his Revenue field staff to enter upon and survey land, take levels of any land, dig or bore into the sub-soil & do all other acts required for the proper execution of their work as provided and specified in section 12 of the Act.

Under sub section (4) of section 11 of the Act, no person shall make any transaction or cause any transaction of land i.e. sale/purchase, etc, or create any encumbrances on such land from the date of publication of such notification without prior approval of the Collector.

Objections to the acquisition, if any, may be filed by the person interested within 60 (sixty days) from the date of publication of this notification as provided under section 15 of the Act before Collector.

PART IV

Reprints from the Government of India Gazette.

MINISTRY OF LAW AND JUSTICE
(Legislative Department)

New Delhi, the 12th February, 2024/Magha 23, 1945 (Saka)

The following Act of Parliament received the assent of the President on the 12th February, 2024 and is hereby published for general information :—

THE PUBLIC EXAMINATIONS (PREVENTION OF UNFAIR MEANS) ACT, 2024

(No. 1 of 2024)

[12th February, 2024.]

An Act to prevent unfair means in the public examinations and to provide for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Seventy-fifth Year of the Republic of India as follows :—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Public Examinations (Prevention of Unfair Means) Act, 2024.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. Definitions.—(1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "candidate" means a person who has been granted permission by the public examination authority to appear in public examination and includes a person authorised to act as a scribe on his behalf in the public examination;

(b) "communication device shall have the same meaning assigned to it in clause (ha) of sub-section (I) of section 2 of the Information Technology Act, 2000 (21of 2000) ;

(c) "competent authority shall mean the Ministry or a Department of the Central Government administratively concerned with the public examination authority ;

(d) "computer network", "computer resource" and "computer system" shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in clauses (j), (k) and (l) of sub-section (I) of section 2 of the Information Technology Act, 2000 (21of 2000);

(e) "conduct of public examination shall include all the procedures, processes and activities, as may be prescribed, for being adopted for the conduct of public examination;

(f)"institution" means any agency, organisation, body, association of persons, business entity, company, partnership or single proprietorship firm, by whatever name it may be called, which is other than the public examination authority and the service provider engaged by such authority.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this clause, it is clarified that "company" includes a company as defined in clause (20) of section 2 of the Companies Act, 2013 (18 of 2013); or a limited liability partnership firm as defined in clause (n) of sub-section (I) of section 2 of the Limited Liability Partnership Act, 2008 (7 of 2009) ;

(g) "notification" means a notification published in the Official Gazette and the expression "notify" shall be construed accordingly ;

(h) "organised crime" means an unlawful activity committed by a person or a group of persons indulging in unfair means in collusion and conspiracy to pursue or promote a shared interest for wrongful gain in respect of a public examination;

(i) "person associated with a service provider" means a person who performs services for or on behalf of such service provider irrespective of whether such person is an employee or an agent or a subsidiary of such service provider, as the case may be ;

(j) “prescribed” means prescribed by rules made under this Act ;

(k)"public examination” means any examination conducted by the public examination authority, as specified in the Schedule, or conducted by such other authority as may be notified by the Central Government.

(l) "public examination authority” means an authority as specified by the Central Government by a notification, from time to time for conducting the public examinations;

(m) "public examination centre” means such premises, which is selected by the service provider or otherwise selected by the public examination authority, to be used for conduct of public examination and which, amongst others, may include any school, computer centre, institution, any building or part thereof and the same shall include the entire periphery and land appurtenant thereto which may be used for security and other related reasons for conduct of the public examinations ; and

(n) "service provider" means any agency, organisation, body, association of persons, business entity, company, partnership or single proprietorship firm, including its associates, sub-contractors and provider of support of any computer resource or any material, by whatever name it may be called, which is engaged by the public examination authority for conduct of public examination.

(2) Words and expressions used herein but not defined and defined under any other law for the time being in force, shall have the same meanings as assigned to them in those laws.

CHAPTER II

UNFAIR MEANS AND OFFENCES

3. Unfair means.—The unfair means relating to the conduct of a public examination shall include any act or omission done or caused to be done by any person or group of persons or institutions, and include but not be restricted to, any of the following acts for monetary or wrongful gain—

(i) leakage of question paper or answer key or part thereof ;

(ii) participating in collusion with others to effect leakage of question paper or answer key ;

(iii) accessing or taking possession of question paper or an Optical Mark Recognition response sheet without authority ;

(iv) providing solution to one or more questions by any unauthorised person during a public examination ;

(v) directly or indirectly assisting the candidate in any manner unauthorisedly in the public examination ;

(vi) tampering with answer sheets including Optical Mark Recognition response sheets ;

(vii) altering the assessment except to correct a bona fide error without any authority ;

(viii) wilful violation of norms or standards set up by the Central Government for conduct of a public examination on its own or through its agency ;

(ix) tampering with any document necessary for short-listing of candidates or finalising the merit or rank of a candidate in a public examination ;

(x) deliberate violation of security measures to facilitate unfair means in conduct of a public examination ;

(xi) tampering with the computer network or a computer resource or a computer system ;

(xii) manipulation in seating arrangements, allocation of dates and shifts for the candidates to facilitate adopting unfair means in examinations ;

(xiii) threatening the life, liberty or wrongfully restraining persons associated with the public examination authority or the service provider or any authorised agency of the Government, or obstructing the conduct of a public examination ;

(xiv) creation of fake website to cheat or for monetary gain ; and

(xv) conduct of fake examination, issuance of fake admit cards or offer letters to cheat or for monetary gain.

4. Conspiracy for unfair means.—No person or group of persons or institutions shall collude or conspire to facilitate indulgence in any such unfair means.

5. Disruption to conduct public examination.—(1) No person, who is not entrusted or engaged with the work pertaining to the public examination or conduct of public examination or who is not a candidate, shall enter the premises of the examination centre, with intent to disrupt the conduct of the public examination.

(2) No person authorised, engaged or entrusted with the duties to conduct public examination shall, before the time fixed for opening and distribution of question papers—

(a) open, leak or possess or access or solve or seek assistance to solve such question paper or any portion or a copy thereof in unauthorised manner for monetary or wrongful gain,

(b) give any confidential information or promise to give such confidential information to any person, where such confidential information is related to or in reference to such question paper for monetary or wrongful gain.

(3) No person, who is entrusted or engaged with any work pertaining to public examination shall, except where he is authorised in furtherance of his duties so to do, reveal or cause to be revealed or make known to any other person any information or part thereof which has come to his knowledge for any undue advantage or wrongful gain

6. Other offences.—If any person or group of persons or institution commits any unfair means or offence under sections 3, 4 and section 5, the service provider shall forthwith report the offence to the concerned police authorities and also inform the public examination authority :

Provided that if the service provider resorts to unfair means and commits the offence or is involved in facilitating an offence, the public examination authority shall report the same to the concerned police authorities.

7. No premises other than examination centre shall be used for public examination.—It shall be an offence for the service provider or any person associated with the service provider to cause any premises, other than the examination centre, authorised by the public examination authority, to be alternatively used for the purpose of holding public examination, without the written approval of the public examination authority :

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall be an offence where any change in the examination centre without prior consent of the public examination authority is due to any force majeure.

"27A. Power to issue guidelines.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, the Central Government in consultation with the Central Board, may, by notification in the Official Gazette, issue guidelines on the matters relating to the grant, refusal or cancellation of consent by any State Board for establishment of any industry, operation or process, or treatment and disposal system or to bringing into use of a new or altered outlet including the mechanism for time-bound disposal of the application made under section 25 or period of validity of such consent.

(2) Every State Board, in discharge of its functions for the purposes of grant, refusal or cancellation of consent under section 25 or section 27 shall act in accordance with the guidelines issued under sub-section (1).".

6. Substitution of new sections 41 and 41A for section 41.—For section 41 of the principal Act, the following sections shall be substituted, namely :—

"41. Failure to comply with provisions of section 20 or directions issued thereunder.—(1) Whoever contravenes or does not comply with the directions given under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) of section 20, within such time as may be specified in the direction, shall, in respect of each such contravention or non-compliance, be liable to pay a penalty which shall not be less than ten thousand rupees, but which may extend to fifteen lakh rupees.

(2) Where any person continues contravention or non-compliance under sub-section (1), he shall be liable to pay an additional penalty of ten thousand rupees every day during which such contravention continues.

41A. Failure to comply with provisions of section 32, or directions issued under section 33 or section 33A.—(1) Whoever contravenes or does not comply with any order or direction issued under clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 32 or any direction issued by a court under sub-section (2) of section 33 or any direction issued under section 33A, shall, in respect of each such contravention or non-compliance, be liable to pay the penalty which shall not be less than ten thousand rupees, but which may extend to fifteen lakh rupees.

(2) Where any person continues contravention or non-compliance under sub-section (1), he shall be liable to pay an additional penalty of ten thousand rupees every day during which such contravention continues.".

7. Amendment of section 42.—In section 42 of the principal Act,—

(a) in sub-section (1), for the long line, the following long line shall be substituted, namely :—

"shall be liable to pay penalty which shall not be less than ten thousand rupees, but which may extend to fifteen lakh rupees.";

(b) for sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely :—

"(2) Where any person continues contravention or non-compliance under sub-section (1), he shall be liable to pay an additional penalty of ten thousand rupees every day during which such contravention continues.".

8. Substitution of new sections for sections 43 and 44.—For sections 43 and 44 of the principal Act, the following sections shall be substituted, namely :—

"43. Penalty for contravention of provisions of section 24.—Whoever contravenes the provisions of section 24, shall be liable to pay the penalty which shall not be less than ten thousand rupees, but which may extend to fifteen lakh rupees and where such contravention continues, he shall be liable to pay an additional penalty of ten thousand rupees every day during which such contravention continues.

44. Penalty for contravention of section 25 or section 26.—Where for the purpose of grant of a consent in pursuance of the provisions of section 25 or section 26, the use of a meter or gauge or other measure or monitoring device is required and such device is used for the purposes of those provisions, any person who knowingly or wilfully alters or interferes with that device so as to prevent it from monitoring or measuring correctly shall be liable to pay penalty which shall not be less than ten thousand rupees, but which may extend to fifteen lakh rupees.".

9. Omission of section 45.—Section 45 of the principal Act shall be omitted.

10. Substitution of new sections 45A to 45E for section 45A.—For section 45A of the principal Act, the following sections shall be substituted, namely :—

45A. Penalty for contravention of certain provisions of Act.—If any person contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or any order or direction issued thereunder, for which no penalty has been provided for in this Act, shall be liable to pay the penalty which shall not be less than ten thousand rupees, but which may extend to fifteen lakh rupees, and where such contravention continues, he shall be liable to pay an additional penalty which may extend to ten thousand rupees for every day during which such contravention continues.

45B. Adjudicating Officer.—(1) The Central Government, for the purposes of determining the penalties under the provisions of this Act shall appoint an officer not below the rank of Joint Secretary to the Government of India or a Secretary to the State Government to be the adjudicating officer, to hold an inquiry and to impose the penalty in the manner, as may be prescribed :

Provided that the Central Government may appoint as many adjudicating officers as may be required.

(2) The adjudicating officer may summon and enforce the attendance of any person acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case to give evidence or to produce any document, which in the opinion of the adjudicating officer, may be useful for or relevant to the subject-matter of the inquiry and if, on such inquiry, he is satisfied that the person concerned has contravened the provisions of this Act, he may determine such penalty as he thinks fit under the provisions of this Act :

Provided that no such penalty shall be imposed without giving the person concerned an opportunity of being heard in the matter.

(3) The amount of penalty imposed under the provisions of sections 41, 41A, 42, 43, 44, 45A and 48, shall be in addition to the liability to pay relief or compensation under section 15 read with section 17 of the National Green Tribunal Act, 2010 (19 of 2010).

45C. Appeal.—(1) Any person aggrieved by the order passed by the adjudicating officer under section 45B may prefer an appeal to the National Green Tribunal established under section 3 of the National Green Tribunal Act, 2010 (19 of 2010).

(2) Every appeal under sub-section (1) shall be filed within sixty days from the date on which the copy of the order made by the adjudicating officer is received by the aggrieved person.

(3) The National Green Tribunal may, after giving the parties to the appeal an opportunity of being heard, pass such order as it thinks fit, confirming, modifying or setting aside the order appealed against.

(4) Where an appeal is preferred against any order of the adjudicating officer under sub-section (1), such appeal shall not be entertained by the Tribunal unless such person has deposited with the Tribunal ten per cent of the amount of the penalty imposed by the adjudicating officer.

45D. Penalty amount to be credited to Environmental Protection Fund.—Where an adjudicating officer imposes penalty or additional penalty, as the case may be, under the provisions of this Act, the amount of such penalty shall be credited to the Environmental Protection Fund established under section 16 of the Environment (Protection) Act, 1986 (29 of 1986).

45E. Offences for failure to comply with provisions of section 25 or 26 and for failure to pay penalty.—(1) Whoever fails to comply with the provisions of section 25 or section 26, in respect of each such failure, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than one year and six months but which may extend to six years and with fine, and in case the failure continues, with an additional fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees for every day during which such failure continues after the conviction for the first such failure.

(2) If the failure referred to in sub-section (1) continues beyond a period of one year after the date of conviction, the offender shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than two years but which may extend to seven years and with fine.

(3) Where any person fails to pay the penalty or the additional penalty, as the case may be, imposed under the provisions of this Act within ninety days of such imposition, be shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine which may extend to twice the amount of the penalty or additional penalty so imposed or with both.

(4) Where any offence under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) has been committed by a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed, was directly in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of such offence and he shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly :

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment provided in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (4), where an offence has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also have deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) "company" includes body corporate, firm, trust, society and any other association of individuals;

(b) "director", includes director of the company, partner of the firm, members of the society or trust or member of any association of individuals, as the case may be.".

11. Amendment of section 2.—In the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 (12 of 2017) (hereinafter referred to as the Central Goods and Services Tax Act), in section 2, for clause (61), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

‘(61) "Input Service Distributor" means an office of the supplier of goods or services or both which receives tax invoices towards the receipt of input services, including invoices in respect of services liable to tax under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) of section 9, for or on behalf of distinct persons referred to in section 25, and liable to distribute the input tax credit in respect of such invoices in the manner provided in section 20;'.

12. Substitution of section 20.—For section 20 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:-

"20. Manner of distribution of credit by Input Service Distributor.—(1) Any office of the supplier of goods or services or both which receives tax invoices towards the receipt of input services, including invoices in respect of services liable to tax under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) of section 9, for or on behalf of distinct persons referred to in section 25, shall be required to be registered as Input Service Distributor under clause (viii) of section 24 and shall distribute the input tax credit in respect of such invoices.

(2) The Input Service Distributor shall distribute the credit of central tax or integrated tax charged on invoices received by him, including the credit of central or integrated tax in respect of services subject to levy of tax under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) of section 9 paid by a distinct person registered in the same State as the said Input Service Distributor, in such manner, within such time and subject to such restrictions and conditions as may be prescribed.

(3) The credit of central tax shall be distributed as central tax or integrated tax and integrated tax as integrated tax or central tax, by way of issue of a document containing the amount of input tax credit, in such manner as may be prescribed.".

13. Insertion of new section 122A.—After section 122 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"122A. Penalty for failure to register certain machines used in manufacture of goods as per special procedure.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, where any person, who is engaged in the manufacture of goods in respect of which any special procedure relating to registration of machines has been notified under section 148, acts in contravention of the said special procedure, he shall, in addition to any penalty that is paid or is payable by him under Chapter XV or any other provisions of this Chapter, be liable to pay a penalty equal to an amount of one lakh rupees for every machine not so registered.

(2) In addition to the penalty under sub-section (1), every machine not so registered shall be liable for seizure and confiscation:

Provided that such machine shall not be confiscated where—

(a) the penalty so imposed is paid; and

(b) the registration of such machine is made in accordance with the special procedure within three days of the receipt of communication of the order of penalty."

MINISTRY OF LAW AND JUSTICE
(Legislative Department)

New Delhi, the 11th December, 2024/Agrahayana 20, 1946 (Saka)

The following Act of Parliament received the assent of the President on the 11th December, 2024 and is hereby published for general information :—

THE BHARATIYA VAYUYAN ADHINIYAM, 2024

(No. 16 of 2024)

[11th December, 2024.]

An Act to provide for regulation and control of the design, manufacture, maintenance, possession, use, operation, sale, export and import of aircraft and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Seventy-fifth Year of the Republic of India as follows :—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent, application and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Bharatiya Vayuyan Adhiniyam, 2024.

(2) It extends to the whole of India and applies to—

(a) citizens of India wherever they may be ;

(b) the aircraft, and the persons on aircraft, registered in India wherever they may be ;

(c) the aircraft, and the persons on aircraft, registered outside India, but for the time being in or over India; and

(d) an aircraft operated by a person who is not a citizen of India but has his principal place of business or permanent residence in India.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(1) "aerodrome" means any definite or limited ground or water area intended to be used, either wholly or in part, for the landing, departure and surface movement of aircraft, and includes all buildings, sheds, vessels, piers and other structures thereon or appertaining thereto;

(2) "aerodrome reference point", in relation to any aerodrome, means a designated point established in the horizontal plane at or near the geometric centre of that part of the aerodrome reserved for the departure or landing of aircraft;

(3) "aircraft" means any machine that can derive support in the atmosphere from reactions of the air, other than reactions of the air against the earth's surface:

(4) "Aircraft Accidents Investigation Bureau" means the Aircraft Accidents Investigation Bureau constituted under section 7;

(5) "Bureau of Civil Aviation Security" means the Bureau of Civil Aviation Security constituted under section 5;

(6) "design" means the set of data and information that defines the configuration of an aeronautical product type, its associated parts and appliances for the purpose of airworthiness determination;

(7) "Directorate General of Civil Aviation" means the Directorate General of Civil Aviation constituted under section 3;

(8) "export" means taking out of India;

(9) "import" means bringing into India;

(10) "maintenance" means the performance of the tasks on an aircraft, engine, propeller or associated part required to ensure the continuing airworthiness of an aircraft, engine, propeller or associated part including any one or combination of overhaul, inspection, replacement, defect rectification, and the embodiment of a modification or repair ;

(11) "manufacture" means the performance of tasks that involve assembly or production of aircraft, engine, propeller or associated parts and appliances in conformity with its applicable design including prototype ;

(12) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act.

CHAPTER II

DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF CIVIL AVIATION

3. Directorate General of Civil Aviation.—(1) The Directorate General of Civil Aviation constituted under the Aircraft Act, 1934 (22 of 1934) shall be deemed to have been constituted under this Act, which shall be headed by an officer designated as the Director General of Civil Aviation appointed in this behalf by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette.

(2) The Directorate General of Civil Aviation shall be responsible for carrying out the safety oversight and regulatory functions in respect of matters specified in this Act or the rules made thereunder.

(3) The administration of the Directorate General of Civil Aviation shall vest in the Director General of Civil Aviation.

(4) The Central Government may, by an order published in the Official Gazette, direct that any power exercisable by the Director General of Civil Aviation may also be exercisable by any other officer or authority specially empowered in this behalf by the Central Government.

4. Power of Director General of Civil Aviation to issue directions.—(1) The Director General of Civil Aviation or any other officer specially empowered in this behalf by the Central Government may, from time to time, by order, issue directions, consistent with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, with respect to any of the matters specified in clauses (b), (e), (g), (i), (j), (k), (l), (m), (n), (a), (p), (q), (r), (s), (w), (zb), (zc), (zd) and (zf) of sub-section (2) of section 10, to any person or persons using any aerodrome or engaged in the aircraft operations, air traffic control, maintenance and operation of aerodrome, communication, navigation, surveillance and air traffic management facilities and safeguarding civil aviation against acts of unlawful interference, in any case where the Director General of Civil Aviation or such other officer is satisfied that in the interests of the security of India or for securing the safety of aircraft operations it is necessary so to do.

(2) Every order passed under sub-section (1) shall be complied with by the person to whom such order is issued.

CHAPTER III

BUREAU OF CIVIL AVIATION SECURITY

5. Bureau of Civil Aviation Security.—(1) The Bureau of Civil Aviation Security constituted under the Aircraft Act, 1934 (22 of 1934) shall be deemed to have been constituted under this Act, which shall be headed by an officer designated as the Director General of Bureau of Civil Aviation Security appointed in this behalf by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette.

(2) The Bureau of Civil Aviation Security shall be responsible for carrying out the regulatory and oversight functions in respect of matters relating to civil aviation security specified in this Act or the rules made thereunder.

(3) The Administration of the Bureau of Civil Aviation Security shall vest in the Director General of Bureau of Civil Aviation Security.

(4) The Central Government may, by an order published in the Official Gazette, direct that any power exercisable by the Director General of Bureau of Civil Aviation Security may also be exercisable by any other officer or authority specially empowered in this behalf by the Central Government.

6. Power of Director General of Bureau of Civil Aviation Security to issue directions.—(1) The Director General of Bureau of Civil Aviation Security or any other officer specially empowered in this behalf by the Central Government may, from time to time, by order, issue directions, consistent with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, with respect to any of the matters specified in clauses

(i), (j), (o), (ze), and (zg) of sub-section (2) of section 10, to any person or persons using any aerodrome, or engaged in the aircraft operations, air traffic control, maintenance and operation of aerodrome, or safeguarding civil aviation against acts of unlawful interference, in any case where the Director General of Bureau of Civil Aviation Security or such other officer is satisfied that in the interests of the security of India or to ensure security of civil aviation operations, it is necessary so to do.

(2) Every person to whom the order is issued under sub-section (1) shall comply with such order.

CHAPTER IV

AIRCRAFT ACCIDENTS INVESTIGATION BUREAU

7. Aircraft Accidents Investigation Bureau.—(1) The Aircraft Accidents Investigation Bureau constituted under the Aircraft Act, 1934 (22 of 1934) shall be deemed to have been constituted under this Act, which shall be headed by an officer designated as the Director General of Aircraft Accidents Investigation Bureau appointed in this behalf by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette.

(2) The Aircraft Accidents Investigation Bureau shall be responsible for carrying out the functions in respect of matters relating to investigation of aircraft accidents or incidents specified in this Act or the rules made thereunder.

(3) The administration of the Aircraft Accidents Investigation Bureau shall vest in the Director General of Aircraft Accidents Investigation Bureau.

(4) The Central Government may, by an order published in the Official Gazette, direct that any power exercisable by the Director General of Aircraft Accidents Investigation Bureau may also be exercisable by any other officer or authority specially empowered in this behalf by the Central Government.

CHAPTER V

POWERS OF CENTRAL GOVERNMENT

8. Superintendence of Central Government.—The superintendence of the Directorate General of Civil Aviation, the Bureau of Civil Aviation Security and the Aircraft Accidents Investigation Bureau shall vest in the Central Government, which shall have the power to issue directions to each of these organisations, on any matters falling under sub-section (2) of sections 3, 5 and 7, respectively, if it considers necessary or expedient so to do in the public interest.

9. Power of Central Government to review orders passed under section 4 or section 6.—(1) Where the Central Government considers it necessary or expedient so to do in the public interest, it may, on receipt of a representation from any person or otherwise, review any order passed by the Director General of Civil Aviation under section 4 or by the Director General of Bureau of Civil Aviation Security under section 6 and issue such directions, as it deems fit, to the concerned Director General to rescind or modify the order so passed.

(2) The Director General of Civil Aviation or the Director General of Bureau of Civil Aviation Security, as the case may be, shall comply with every direction issued under sub-section (1) and either rescind or modify the order so passed by him under section 4 or section 6, as the case may be.

10. Power of Central Government to make rules.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section 34, the Central Government may. by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules regulating the design, manufacture, maintenance, possession, use, operation, sale, import or export of any aircraft or class of aircraft and for securing the safety of aircraft operations.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—

(a) the authorities by which any of the powers conferred by or under this Act are to be exercised;

(b) the regulation of air transport services, and the prohibition of the use of aircraft in such services except under the authority of and in accordance with a licence authorising the establishment of the service;

(c) the economic regulation of civil aviation and air transport services, including the approval, disapproval or revision on tariff of operators of air transport services, other than the tariff referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 13 of the Airports Economic Regulatory Authority of India Act, 2008 ; (27 of 2008) the officers or authorities who may exercise powers in this behalf; the procedure to be followed and the factors to be taken into account by such officers or authorities; appeals to the Central Government against orders of such officers or authorities and all other matters connected with such tariff.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this clause, "tariff" includes fares, rates, valuation charges and other charges for air transport of passengers or goods, the rules, regulations, practices or services affecting such fares, rates, valuation charges and other charges and the rates, terms and conditions of commission payable to passenger or cargo sales agents;

(d) the information to be furnished by an applicant for, or the holder of, a licence authorising the establishment of an air transport service to such authorities as may be specified in the rules;

(e) the licensing, inspection and regulation of aerodromes, the conditions under which aerodromes may be maintained and the prohibition or regulation of the use of unlicensed aerodromes;

(f) the fees which may be charged at those aerodromes to which the Airports Authority of India Act, 1994 (55 of 1994) or the Airports Economic Regulatory Authority of India Act, 2008 (27 of 2008) does not apply or are not made applicable;

(g) the inspection and control of the design, manufacture, repair and maintenance of aircraft and of places where aircraft are being designed, manufactured, repaired or kept;

(h) the registration and marking of aircraft;

(i) the conditions under which aircraft may be flown, or may carry passengers, mails or goods, or may be used for industrial purposes and the certificates, licences or documents to be carried by aircraft;

(j) the inspection of aircraft or any facility for the design, manufacture, maintenance, or operation of aircraft for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Act and the rules thereunder;

(k) the licensing of persons employed in the operation, manufacture, repair or maintenance of aircraft;

(l) the licensing of persons engaged in air traffic control;

(m) the certification and licensing of personnel engaged in the operation of radio telephone or telegraph for the conduct of operation and maintenance of aircraft and associated equipment;

(n) the certification, inspection and regulation of communication, navigation and surveillance and air traffic management facilities;

(o) the measures to safeguard civil aviation against acts of unlawful interference;

(p) the regulation of air navigation services, that is, aeronautical information services, aeronautical charting and cartography services, aeronautical meteorological services, search and rescue services, procedure for air navigation services and aircraft operations other than those referred to in clause (n) and any other matter relating to air navigation services;

(q) the air-routes by which, and the conditions under which, aircraft may enter or leave India, or may fly within or over India, and the places at which aircraft shall land or take-off;

(r) the prohibition of flight by aircraft over any specified area, either absolutely or at specified times, or subject to specified conditions and exceptions;

(s) the supply, supervision and control of air-route beacons, aerodrome lights, and lights at or in the neighbourhood of aerodromes or on or in the neighbourhood of air-routes;

(t) the installation and maintenance of lights on private property in the neighbourhood of aerodromes or on or in the neighbourhood of air-routes, by the owners or occupiers of such property, the payment by the Central Government for such installation and maintenance, and the supervision and control of such installation and maintenance, including the right of access to the property for such purposes;

(u) the signals to be used for purposes of communication by or to aircraft and the apparatus to be employed in signaling;

(v) the prohibition and regulation of the carriage in aircraft of any specified article, dangerous goods or substance;

(w) the measures to be taken and the equipment to be carried for the purpose of ensuring the safety of life;

(x) the issue and maintenance of log-books;

(y) the manner and conditions of the issue or renewal of any licence, certificate or approval under this Act or the rules made thereunder, the examinations and tests to be undergone in connection therewith, the form, custody, production, endorsement, cancellation, suspension or surrender of such licence, certificate or approval, or of any log-book;

(z) the fees to be charged in connection with any inspection, examination, test, certificate, licence or approval, made, issued or renewed under this Act;

(za) the recognition for the purposes of this Act of licences and certificates issued elsewhere than in India relating to aircraft or to the qualifications of persons employed in the operation, manufacture, repair or maintenance of aircraft ;

(zb) the prohibition of slaughtering and flaying of animals and of depositing rubbish, filth and other polluted and obnoxious matter within a radius of ten kilometres from the aerodrome reference point;

(zc) regulation for control of obstruction limiting surfaces around an aerodrome or communication and navigation services facility;

(zd) safety oversight and regulatory functions;

(ze) security oversight and its regulatory functions;

(zf) the areas and manner in which the Director General of Civil Aviation may issue directions for carrying out safety oversight and regulatory functions and grant exemption from compliance with such directions;

(zg) the areas and manner in which the Director General of Bureau of Civil Aviation Security may issue directions for carrying out security oversight functions and grant exemption from compliance with such directions;

(zh) to determine the amount of monetary penalty;

(zi) any matter subsidiary or incidental to the matters referred to in this sub-section.

11. Power of Central Government to make rules to implement Convention.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section 34, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make such rules as appear to it to be necessary for carrying out the Convention relating to International Civil Aviation signed at Chicago on the 7th day of December, 1944 (including any Annex thereto relating to international standards and recommended practices) as amended from time to time.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Telecommunications Act, 2023, (44 of 2023) but subject to the provisions of section 34, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make such rules as may appear to it to be necessary or expedient for the issuance of Radio Telephone Operator (Restricted) Certificate and Licence to persons engaged in the operation and maintenance of aircraft, in accordance with the applicable provisions of the International Telecommunication Convention as amended from time to time.

12. Power of Central Government to make rules for investigation of accidents.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section 34, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules providing for the investigation of any accident or incident arising out of or in the course of the navigation—

(a) in or over India of any aircraft; or

(b) anywhere of aircraft registered in India.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may—

(a) require notice to be given of any accident or incident in such manner and by such person as may be specified therein;

(b) apply for the purposes of such investigation, either with or without modification, the provisions of any law for the time being in force relating to the investigation of accident or incident;

(c) prohibit pending investigation access to or interference with aircraft to which an accident or incident has occurred, and authorise any person so far as may be necessary for the purposes of an investigation to have access to, examine, remove, take measures for the preservation of, or otherwise deal with, any such aircraft; and

(d) authorise or require the cancellation, suspension, endorsement or surrender of any licence or certificate granted or recognised under this Act when it appears on an investigation that the licence ought to be so dealt with, and provide for the production of any such licence for such purpose.

13. Power of Central Government to make rules for protecting public health.—Subject to the provisions of section 34, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for the prevention of danger arising to the public health by the introduction or spread of any infectious or contagious disease from aircraft arriving at or being at any aerodrome and for the prevention of the conveyance of infection or contagion by means of any aircraft leaving an aerodrome and in particular and without prejudice to the generality of this provision may make, with respect to aircraft and aerodromes or any specified aerodrome, rules providing for any of the matters for which rules under sub-clauses (i) to (viii) of clause (p) of sub-section (1) of section 6 of the Indian Ports Act, 1908, (15 of 1908) may be made with respect to vessels and ports.

14. Emergency powers of Central Government for protecting public health.—(1) If the Central Government is satisfied that India or any part thereof is visited by or threatened with an outbreak of any dangerous epidemic disease, and that the ordinary provisions of the law for the time being in force are insufficient for the prevention of danger arising to the public health through the introduction or spread of the disease by the agency of aircraft, the Central Government may take such measures as it deems necessary to prevent such danger.

(2) In any such case the Central Government may, without prejudice to the powers conferred by section 13, by notification in the Official Gazette, make such temporary rules with respect to aircraft and persons travelling or things carried therein and aerodromes as it deems necessary in the circumstances.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 34, the power to make rules under sub-section (2) shall not be subject to the condition of the rules being made after previous publication, but such rules shall not remain in force for more than three months from the date of notification :

Provided that the Central Government may by special order continue them in force for a further period or periods of not more than three months in all.

15. Power of Central Government to make orders in emergency.—(1) If the Central Government is of opinion that in the interest of public safety or tranquillity the issue of all or any of the following orders is expedient, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette,—

(a) cancel or suspend, either absolutely or subject to such conditions as it may think fit to specify in the order, all or any licence, certificate or approval issued under this Act;

(b) prohibit, either absolutely or subject to such conditions as it may think fit to specify in the order, or regulate in such manner as may be contained in the order, the flight of all or any aircraft or class of aircraft over the whole or any portion of India;

(c) prohibit, either absolutely, or conditionally, or regulate the erection, maintenance or use of any aerodrome, aircraft facility, Flying Training Organisation or place where aircraft are designed, manufactured, repaired or kept, or any class or description thereof; and

(d) direct that any aircraft or class of aircraft or any aerodrome, aircraft facility, Flying Training Organisation or place where aircraft are designed, manufactured, repaired or kept, together with any machinery, plant, material or things used for the design, operation, manufacture, repair or maintenance of aircraft shall be delivered, either forthwith or within a specified time, to such authority and in such manner as it may specify in the order, to be at the disposal of that Government for the public service.

(2) Any order made under sub-section (7) shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any rule made under this Act.

(3) Any person who suffers direct injury or loss by reason of any order made under clause (c) or clause (d) of sub-section (1) shall be paid such compensation as may be determined by such authority as the Central Government may appoint in this behalf.

(4) The Central Government may authorise such steps to be taken to secure compliance with any order made under sub-section (1) as appear to it to be necessary.

(5) Whoever knowingly disobeys, or fails to comply with, or does any act in contravention of, an order made under sub-section (1), shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both, and the Court by which he is convicted may direct that the aircraft or thing (if any) in respect of which the offence has been committed, or any part of such thing, shall be forfeited to the Central Government.

16. Power of Central Government to make rules for securing safe custody and re-delivery of unclaimed property.—Subject to the provisions of section 34, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules which may provide for securing the safe custody and re-delivery of any property which, while not in proper custody, is found on any aerodrome or in any aircraft on any aerodrome and any such rules may, in particular, provide for—

(a) the payment of charges in respect of any such property before it is re-delivered to the person entitled thereto; and

(b) the disposal of any such property in cases where the same is not re-delivered to the person entitled thereto before the expiration of such period as may be specified therein.

17. Power to detain aircraft.—(1) Any authority authorised in this behalf by the Central Government may detain any aircraft, if in the opinion of such authority—

(a) having regard to the nature of an intended flight, the flight of such aircraft would involve danger to persons in the aircraft or to any other person or property; or

(b) such detention is necessary to secure compliance with any of the provisions of this Act or the rules applicable to such aircraft; or such detention is necessary to prevent a contravention of any rule made under clause (q) or clause (r) of sub-section (2) of section 10 or to implement any order made by any court.

(2) Subject to the provisions of section 34, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules regulating all matters incidental or subsidiary to the exercise of this power.

18. Power of Central Government to prohibit or regulate construction of buildings, planting of trees, and the like.—(1) If the Central Government is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do for the safety of aircraft operations, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette,—

(a) direct that no building or structure shall be constructed or erected, or no tree shall be planted on any land within such radius, not exceeding twenty kilometres from the aerodrome reference point, as may be specified in the notification and where there is any building, structure or tree on such land, also direct the owner or the person having control of such building, structure or tree to demolish such building or structure or, as the case may be, to cut such tree within such period as may be specified in the notification;

(b) direct that no building or structure higher than such height as may be specified in the notification shall be constructed or erected, or no tree, which is likely to grow or ordinarily grows higher than such height as may be specified in the notification, shall be planted, on any land within such radius, not exceeding twenty kilometres from the aerodrome reference point, as may be specified in the notification and where the height of any building or structure or tree on such land is higher than the specified height, also direct the owner or the person having control of such building, structure or tree to reduce the height thereof so as not to exceed the specified height, within such period as may be specified in the notification.

(2) In specifying the radius under clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1) and in specifying the height of any building, structure or tree under the said clause (b), the Central Government shall have regard to

(a) the nature of the aircraft operated or intended to be operated in the aerodrome; and

(b) the international standards and recommended practices governing the operation of aircraft.

(3) Where any notification has been issued under sub-section (1) directing the owner or the person having control of any building, structure or tree to demolish such building or structure or to cut such tree or to reduce the height of any building, structure or tree, a copy of the notification containing such direction shall be served on the owner or the person having the control of the building, structure or tree, as the case may be,—

(a) by delivering or tendering it to such owner or person ; or

(b) if it cannot be so delivered or tendered, by delivering or tendering it to any officer of such owner or person or any adult member of the family of such owner or person or by affixing a copy thereof on the outer door or on some conspicuous part of the premises in which such owner or person is known to have last resided or carried on business or personally worked for gain or delivering by mail or any other electronic means; or

(c) failing service by any of the means specified in clause (a) or clause (b), by post.

(4) Every person shall be bound to comply with any direction contained in any notification issued under sub-section (1).

19. Power of Central Government to restrict, suspend or cancel licence, certificate or approval.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, if any person contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made or the directions issued thereunder, the Central Government or any officer authorised in this behalf, may impose any restriction or suspend or cancel the licence, certificate or approval issued to such person under this Act, in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) On being satisfied that there has been contravention of the provisions of the Act or the rules made or directions issued under this Act by any person, the Central Government or any officer authorised under sub-section (1) may, by an order in writing.—

(i) suspend or cancel the licence, certificate or approval; or

(ii) impose restrictions on the licence, certificate or approval, issued to such person stating the nature of contravention of the respective provisions of the Act, rule or the direction which has been contravened and the reasons for such suspension or cancellation or imposition of restriction.

(3) The Central Government or the officer authorised under sub-section (1) shall, before passing an order under sub-section (2), give an opportunity of being heard to the person concerned.

(4) The Central Government may, in the rules made under this section, specify the grounds on which the licence, certificate or approval may be suspended or the circumstances under which such restrictions may be imposed with immediate effect.

20. Power of Central Government to exempt certain aircraft.—The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, and for the reasons provided therein, exempt from all or any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder, any aircraft or class of aircraft and any person or class of persons, or may direct that such provisions shall apply to such aircraft or persons subject to such modifications as may be specified in the notification.

21. Power of Central Government to delegate.—The Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, direct that the powers (except the power to make rules under this Act) exercisable by it under this Act may also be exercisable by the Director General of Civil Aviation or the Director General of Bureau of Civil Aviation Security or the Director General of Aircraft Accidents Investigation Bureau or any other officer or authority specifically empowered in this behalf by the Central Government.

CHAPTER VI

PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION FOR LOSS OR DAMAGE

22. Manner of determination and payment of compensation for loss or damage. —(1) If in consequence of any direction contained in any notification issued under sub-section (1) of section 18, any person sustains any loss or damage, such person shall be paid compensation the amount of which shall be determined in the manner and in accordance with the principles hereinafter set out, that is to say,

(a) where the amount of compensation can be fixed by agreement, it shall be paid in accordance with such agreement;

(b) where no such agreement can be reached, the Central Government shall appoint as arbitrator a person who is or has been qualified for appointment as a Judge of a High Court;

(c) the Central Government may, in any particular case, nominate a person having adequate knowledge as to the nature of the loss or damage suffered by the person to be compensated and where such nomination is made, the person to be compensated may also nominate an assessor for the same purpose;

(d) at the commencement of the proceedings before the arbitrator, the Central Government and the person to be compensated shall state what, in their respective opinion, is a fair amount of compensation;

(e) the arbitrator shall, after hearing the dispute, make an award. determining the amount of compensation which appears to him to be just and specify the person or persons to whom such compensation shall be paid; and in making the award he shall have regard to the circumstances of each case and,—

(i) the damage sustained by the person to be compensated in his earnings:

(ii) if in consequence of any direction contained in any notification issued under sub-section (1) of section 18, the market value of the land immediately after the issue of such notification is diminished, the diminution in such market value;

(iii) where any building or structure has been demolished or any tree has been cut or the height of any building, structure or tree has been reduced in pursuance of any direction, the damage sustained by the person to be compensated in consequence of such demolition, cutting or reduction and the expenses incurred by such person for such demolition, cutting or reduction;

(iv) if the person to be compensated is compelled to change his residence or place of business, the reasonable expenses, if any, that may have to be incurred by him incidental to such change;

(f) where there is any dispute as to the person or persons who are entitled to the compensation, the arbitrator shall decide such dispute and if the arbitrator finds that more persons than one are entitled to compensation, he shall apportion the amount thereof amongst such persons;
