				" It is quite well known that there is no inherent power of review in a quasi-judicial authority. In the absence of an inherent power or statutory power to review the final seniority list and to alter it, neither State Government nor any of its officer is competent to go behind the earlier finalized seniority list. It is only where final seniority list is judicially set aside a fresh list for the said period could be prepared. "In view of the above, we allow these appeals, set aside the impugned judgment and declare the provisions of the impugned Act to the extent of doing away with the 'catchup' rule and providing for consequential seniority under Sections 3 and 4 to persons belonging so SCs and STs on promotion against roster points to be ultra vires Articles 14 and 16 the Constitution. The Judgment will not affect those who have already retired and will not affect financial benefits already taken. Consequential promotions granted to serving employees, based on consequential Seniority benefit, will be treated as ad hoc and liable to be reviewed. Seniority list may be now revised in the light of this judgment within three months from today. Further consequential action may be taken accordingly within next three monts."

"In view of the above, we allow these appeals, set aside the impugned judgment and declare the provisions of the impugned Act to the extent of doing away with the 'catchup' rule and providing for consequential seniority under Sections 3 and 4 to persons belonging so SCs and STs on promotion against roster points to be ultra vires Articles 14 and 16 the Constitution. The Judgment will not affect those who have already retired and will not affect financial benefits already taken. Consequential promotions granted to serving employees, based on consequential Seniority benefit, will be treated as ad hoc and liable to be reviewed. Seniority list may be now revised in the light of this judgment within three months from today. Further consequential action may be taken accordingly within next three monts."
