(JUDICIAL-1 BRANCH)

NOTIFICATION

The 15th May, 2023

No. G.S.R. 59 /Const./Art.309/2023.-In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution of India, and all other powers enabling in this behalf, the Governor of Punjab is pleased to make the following rules, regulating the recruitment and conditions of service of the persons appointed to the Punjab Advocate General (Group 'A') Service, namely: -

RULES

1. Short title, commencement and application.- (1) These rules may be called the Punjab Advocate General, (Group 'A') Service Rules, 2023.

(2) They shall come into force on and with effect from the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

(3) They shall apply to the posts specified in Appendix 'A'.

2. Definitions.- (1) In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,-

- (a) 'Administrative Secretary' , where ever appearing in these rules, means the Special Chief Secretary or Additional Chief Secretary or Financial Commissioner or Principal Secretary or Secretary, whosoever is the administrative head of the Department of Home Affairs and Justice;
- (b) 'Advocate General' means the Advocate General, Punjab, for the time being;
- (c) 'Appendix' means an Appendix appended to these rules;
- (d) 'Government' means the Government of the State of Punjab in the Department of Home Affairs and Justice; and
- (e) 'Service' means the Punjab Advocate General (Group 'A') Service.

(2) The words and expressions used, but not defined in these rules, shall have the same meaning as respectively assigned to them in the Punjab Civil Services (General and Common Conditions of Service) Rules, 1994.

3. Number and character of posts.-The Service shall comprise the posts specified in Appendix 'A':

Provided that nothing in these rules shall affect the inherent right of the Government to add to or reduce the number of such posts or to create new posts with different designations and scales of pay, whether permanently or temporarily.

4. Appointing authority.- Appointment to the Service shall be made by the Government.

5. Pay of members of the Service.- The members of the Service shall be entitled to such scales of pay, as may be authorised by the Department of Finance from time to time. The scales of pay, at present, in force in respect of the members of the Service, are given in Appendix 'A'.

6. Method of appointment, qualifications and experience.- (1)
Appointment to the Service shall be made in the manner specified in Appendix 'B':

Provided that if no suitable candidate is available for appointment to the Service by promotion or by direct appointment, the appointment to the Service may be made by transfer of a person holding an analogous post under the State Government or Government of India.

(2) No person shall be appointed to a post in the Service, unless he possesses the qualifications and experience as specified against that post in Appendix 'B'.

(3) Appointment to the Service by promotion shall be made on seniority-cum-merit basis, but no person shall have any right to claim promotion on the basis of seniority alone.

7. Discipline, punishment and appeal.- (1) In the matters of discipline, punishment and appeal, the members of the Service shall be governed by the Punjab Civil Services (Punishment and Appeal) Rules, 1970, as amended from time to time.

(2) The authority empowered to impose penalties as specified in rule 5 of the Punjab Civil Services (Punishment and Appeal)

Rules, 1970 and the appellate authority thereunder in respect of the members of the Service against an order as specified in the Punjab Civil Services (Punishment and Appeal) Rules, 1970, shall be as per Appendix 'C'.

8. Application of the Punjab Civil Services (General and Common Conditions of Service) Rules, 1994.- (1) In respect of the matters, which are not specifically provided in these rules, the members of the Service shall be governed by the provisions of the Punjab Civil Services (General and Common Conditions of Service) Rules, 1994, as amended from time to time.

(2) The Punjab Civil Services (General and Common Conditions of Service) Rules, 1994, at present in force, are contained in Appendix 'D'.

9. Interpretation.- If any question arises as to the interpretation of these rules, the Government, in consultation with the Department of Personnel, shall decide the same.

Provided that where appointment of Group 'A' and Group 'B' non-technical post is offered to a war hero, who has been discharged from defence services or para-military forces on account of disability suffered by him or his widow or dependent member of his family, under the instructions issued in this behalf by the Government, the educational qualification to be possessed by such person shall be graduation from a recognized university, Such person who is offered Group 'A' or Group 'B' or Group 'C' non-technical post, shall not, however, be required to possess experience of technical or non-technical post at the time of his initial appointment.

7. Probation.-(1) A person appointed to any post in the Service shall remain on probation for a period of three years, if recruited by direct appointment and one year if recruited otherwise:

Provided that, -

- (a) any period, after such appointment, spent on deputation on a corresponding or a higher post shall count towards the period of probation;
- (b) in the case of an appointment by transfer, any period of work on an equivalent or higher rank, prior to appointment to the Service, may in the discretion of the appointing authority, be allowed to count towards the period of probation;
- (c) any period of officiating appointment to the Service shall be reckoned as period spent on probation; and

(VYSK 25, 1945 SAKA)

- (d) any kind of leave not exceeding six months during or at the end of period of probation, shall be counted towards the period of probation.
- (2) If, in the opinion of the appointing authority, the work or conduct of a person during the period of probation is not satisfactory or he has failed to pass the departmental examination, if any, prescribed in Service Rules within a period not exceeding one and a half years from the date of appointment, it may,-
 - (a) if such person is recruited by direct appointment, dispense with his service or revert him to a post on which he held lien prior to his appointment to the Service by direct appointment; and
 - b) if such person is appointed otherwise –
 - (i) revert him to his former post; or
 - (ii) deal with him in such other manner as the terms and conditions of the previous appointment permit.
- (3) On the completion of the period of probation of a person, the appointing authority may-
 - (a) if his work and conduct has in its opinion been satisfactory –
 - (i) confirm such person, from the date of his appointment or from the date he completes his period of probation satisfactorily, if he is not already confirmed; or
 - (ii) declare that he has completed his probation satisfactorily, if he is already confirmed; or
 - (b) If his work or conduct has not been, in its opinion, satisfactory or if he has failed to pass the departmental examination, if any, specified in the Service Rules -
 - (i) dispense with his services, if appointed by direct appointment or if appointed otherwise revert him to his former post, or deal with him in such other manner as the terms and conditions of his previous appointment may permit;
 - (ii) extend his period of probation and thereafter pass such order as it could have passed on the expiry of the period of probation as specified in sub-rule (1) :

Provided that the total period of probation including extension, if any, shall not exceed four years, if recruited by direct appointment and three years if appointed otherwise.

8. Seniority.-The seniority inter se of persons appointed to posts in each cadre of a Service shall be determined by the length of continuous service on such post in that cadre of the Service:

Provided that in the case of persons recruited by direct appointment who join within the period specified in the order of appointment or within such period as may be extended from time to time by appointing authority subject to a maximum of four months from the date of order of appointment, the order of merit determined by the Commission or the Board, as the case may be, shall not be disturbed:

Provided further that in case a person is permitted to join the post after the expiry of the said period of four months in consultation with the Commission or the Board, as the case may be, his seniority shall be determined from the date he joins the post:

Provided further that in case any person of the next selection has joined a post in the cadre of the concerned Service before the person referred to in the preceding proviso joins, the person so referred shall be placed below all the persons of the next selection, who join within the time specified in the first proviso:

Provided further that in the case of two or more persons appointed on the same date, their seniority shall be determined as follows : -

- (a) a person appointed by direct appointment shall be senior to a person appointed otherwise;
- (b) a person appointed by promotion shall be senior to a person appointed by transfer;
- (c) in the case of persons appointed by promotion or transfer, the seniority shall be determined according to the seniority of such persons in the appointment from which they were promoted or transferred ; and
- (d) in the case of persons appointed by transfer from different cadres their seniority shall be determined according to pay, preference being given to a person who was drawing a higher rate of pay in his previous appointment; and if the rates of pay drawn are also the same, then by their length of service in these appointments; and if the length of such service is also the same, an older person shall be senior to a younger person :

Provided further that in the case of persons recruited by direct appointment in the same cadre obtaining equal marks, during same selection process, their inter-se-seniority shall be determined on the basis of their age. That is, an older person shall be senior to the younger person.

Note:- Seniority of persons appointed on purely provisional basis or on ad hoc basis shall be determined as and when they are regularly appointed keeping in view the dates of such regular appointment.

9. Liability of members of Service to transfer.- A member of a Service may be transferred to any post whether included in any other service or not, on the same terms and conditions as are specified in rule 3.17 of the Punjab Civil Service Rules, Volume-1 Part-1.
